

MICRO MIDGET RACES

Micro Midget Auto racing has become the world's fastest growing racing sport, with amateur and professional race drivers participating throughout the country.

Crescent City was one of the first to boast of Micro Midgets and a full racing program. This year the races were taken to the Chetco Rodeo Grounds in Brookings where they have been held for the past several Sundays.

Next years plans call for the construction of a new tract that will accommodate night racing in Crescent City.

Many new cars are being built with Ed Dungey finishing his in time for last Sunday's race. He completed his car in exactly 7 days, using Crosley parts and a chain saw motor. Anyone else interested in building cars can obtain specifications through the Del Norte Micro Midget Club, Box 864, Crescent City.

Some of the highlights of last Sunday's race here were: Trophy Dash, first place; Marion Tolman, First heat—Herb Heberlein. Second heat—C. L. Mendenhall, of Brookings. Third heat—Tolman. Semi-main—Marvin Baker, Keith Furgeson; Second, Ed Dungey.

Main Event—First place—Heberlein, Tolman, Don Toombs Baker, Stuart Eldred, Dungey, and Mendenhall.

The next Micro Auto races will be held August 3, Saturday evening at 5 p. m. in Brookings.

TEACHING STAFF

Supt. of Schools Gene Allison reports that the teaching staff for the district is now complete with the single exception of the high school chemistry and physics teacher.

Allison said that he has a candidate in mind for that position

BOATS AT SNUG HARBOR. This is a beautiful scene, which will be duplicated in similar spots along the Chetco in the coming years, as the boating enthusiasts get more and more plentiful. Snug Harbor, just up the river a short distance above the bridge is in a sheltered inlet. Work is being done on Snug Harbor to accommodate more tourists. It is expected that with the work being done on the jetties more and more people will be making this their vacation stop. PILOT PHOTO
