Harbor NEWS

The Harbor Garage is open again after a few week closure due to Merle Brown and his family moving to Lebanon to make their home. Lester Walker, who formerly had the Garage has taken it over again and is open for business.

Zerl Putman drove to Corvallis last week where he visited at the home of his mother, Mrs. Caroline Putman. When he returned home Thursday he was accompanied by Mrs. Putman, his sister, Mrs. Ralph Cater and her son Dwight, of New York City, all of whom are visiting at the Walter Thompson home here for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Thompson is Mrs. Putman's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hanscam and three children were visitors here overnight Friday at the homes of E.E. Hanscam Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. J.O. Knutson. The children remained here at the Knutson home when their parents returned to Klamath Falls, and will rejoin them this week when Mr. and Mrs. Knutson go to Klamath Falls, about Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Kemske and daughter Kim left for their home in Sunnyvale, California, after a four day visit here at the home of Mr. Kemske's mother, Mrs. S. N. Fischer. On Tuesday Mrs. Fischer left for Yakima, Washington to visit for a couple of weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Don Diessner.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Jaklewicz were Rogue River valley visitors the latter part of the week. They visited at the home of former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Spence in Ashland, and attended the Josephine County Fair at Grants Pass, returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wheeler Jr. and family left Saturday for South Attelboro, Massachusetts where Mr. Wheeler has accepted employment, and they will make their future home there. The Wheeler's moved here three years ago from South Attelboro, so they will be going back to their former home to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Banick were called to Salem last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Banick's mother, which was held at Belcrest cemetery Thursday afternoon. The Banicks returned home during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Herbert and four children of Eugene were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LaVere Hewitt on Tuesday.

Notice

Harbor Fire Chief La Vere Hewitt announces that the residents within the Harbor Fire District will receive a visit from the Fire Department personnel, relative to home fire prevention. It is hoped that the program can be completed during the month of August.

MOVING

Mr. and Mrs. Doug MacFarlane are moving into their new home on Spruce Drive this weekend. The house was formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cloan Powell, who have gone to Corvallis, where Mr. Powell is going to study at Oregon State for his masters degree. He was the Science teacher in Brookings for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Vaughan have moved into the apartment over the Hi-Way Mkt. and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Vaughan have moved into Alvin's home which is on Del Norte.

Altar Society Meets

The Star of the Sea Altar Society met at the Parish hall Tuesday evening with a good turnout of members. The meeting was presided over by the President, Edith Berger, and a general discussion of the annual bazaar to be held during the latter part of October was held.

The Society is holding a handkerchief shower at the Parish Hall on August 20th in honor of Mrs. Leo Quinlin and Mrs. Pete Lesmeister, and everybody of the parish is invited.

A social hour closed the meeting, with refreshments served by Ann Olsen, Rita Brown and Eileen Roberts.
