Rural Mail Carriers Meet

Rural mail carriers from Southern Oregon met Sunday, August 11, at Azalea State Park in Brookings for a day of social activities and visiting.

A pot luck lunch of fried chicken, ham and all the trimmings highlighted the day under a warm blue sky.

Attending the meeting were Mr and Mrs. Hans Rammin from Medford; Mrs. George Misk and son David* from Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferrell of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilmore from Murphy; Mrs. Gertrude Hall from Pinole, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kilbourne and daughter Janet from Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jamer of Rogue River, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdie Steinmetz and family from Brookings, the hosts.

Elmer Gilmore proved to be the sharpshooter of the horseshoe pit with Ferrell, Kilbourne, and Rammin running close seconds.

Many more carriers and their families were expected and it is regretted that they missed such a fine day of wonderful weather along the coast.
