

ON THESE LOW PRICES

FRIDAY and SATURDAY SPECIALS

C AND K
MARKET

ARMOUR'S CRESENT SLICED

BACON

2 LBS.

CHUCK

ROAST

USDA GOOD BLADE OR ROUND BONE

49 [¢] LB

GROUND BEEF

39 [¢] LB

FRESH STEWING

HENS

39 [¢] LB

ARMOUR'S

SMOKED DELITE

Excellent for Breakfast Meat

BONELESS

75 [¢] LB

FRESH WHOLE DRAWN

Fryers

59 [¢] LB

KLEENEX 400's

TISSUE 2 Boxes for

55 [¢]

HOME GARDEN

Applesauce 6 / $1

CREAM FLAKE 3 lb. TIN

SHORTNING

79 [¢]

DEL ROGUE

TOMATO JUICE 46-oz. tins 4 / 99 [¢]

BANNER

OLEO

5 [¢] LB

HUNTS WHOLE NEW

POTATOS 303 Can 5 / 49 [¢]

Libby's

Frozen Foods

Libby's

PEAS 5 for

FROZEN

Libby's

CORN 89[¢]

FROZEN

FROZEN

ORANGE JUICE 7 for 1

TROPICAL FRUIT PUNCH

7 for 1

TRUCKLOADS of FRESH

Produce

CANTALOUPE

6 [¢] LB

BARTLET CANNING

Pears

22 lb. LUG

1 ¹⁹

BELL

PEPPERS

2 for

5 [¢]

BATTY TAKES OVER STATION

Gilbert Batty has taken over the operation of the Associated Station on the corner of Oak and Chetco Avenue.

The station was previously operated by Ralph Tews. The change will go into effect this Friday, August 16.

WINS APPOINTMENT

Robert Ludlum, a sophomore at Oregon State, and a local boy won a student trainee appointment with the Forest Service here. Ludlum will help with the timber division. He has been serving as a look-out on top of Mt. Emily.

RETURNS

Paul Fauerso, Brookings insurance man, is due back in Brookings this week, after a six week insurance course.

Fauerso will be qualified as an insurance consultant upon his completion of the course.

The course, which has about 40 attending from all over the U.S. is held in Seattle, Wash.

His wife stayed in Grayland, Wash. visiting relatives during Paul's studies.

FORESTER TO ARRIVE HERE IN SEPTEMBER

Carl Jackson, a professional Forester will arrive in Brookings in September to assist W. E. Ragland, District Ranger, in the timber division here.

GARDEN CLUB GETS 30 AWARDS AT COUNTY FAIR

Over 60 entries were taken by the Azalea Garden club members to be shown at the county fair last week end.

Almost half this number were from non-members. A total of 30 awards were realized by the group.

Among those club members awarded ribbons are:

Section C, Erma Rice: Class 4, Coffee Table, Blue; Class 10 Some are Little, red; Class 12, Fantasy of Tides, white.

Marian Fallert: Class 6, Variety, red; Fuchsia, red; Carnation, red; Ball Dahlia, blue; Gaillardia, blue; and Hydrangea blue.

Sylvia Knox, Class 1, Midsummer Horn, white; Hydrangea blue, and Pansy, blue.

Martha Grayshel: Candlelight, blue; Variety, blue; Welcome, blue; Midsummer Morn, red, an Fantasy, red.

Jessie Judkins: Matilija poppy, red; Smoky Glad, blue; and Blue Lily of Nile, blue.

Lillian Weideman: All green arrangement, blue.

Taking the entries to Gold Beach were Mesdames Martha Grayshel, Irma Rice, Sylvia Knox, Marian Fallert, and Lillian Weideman. Mrs. Lee Hein, the club president, brought the ladies home on Sunday.

BROOKINGS HAS CAB

Brookings has cab service again, with Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jordan opening up the service in Brookings.

The Jordons both will drive, and tentatively plan for an 18 hour service, from 6:30 a.m. to 2 a.m.

Both are long time residents of this community. In fact, the founder of the city, Mr. Brookings was an uncle of Jordan.