

SWIM PROGRAM ENDS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the organizations and individuals that made this summer swim program possible by donating the needed funds. Thanks to the South Coast Lumber Co. for the donated lumber to build the raft and the Union Oil Co. for the 10 barrels for floats.

The Summer Recreation Fund bank statements show that we have well over 200. over our expenses to apply for the next summer program.

The program provided 14 Red Cross swim lessons to 406 students during the summer. This could not have been done without the much appreciated volunteer help of the more advanced swimmers. We had a total of 21 of these volunteer instructors during the summer that taught at least a three week course.

HAMPTON IS MARRIED

Word has recently been received of the marriage of Deryal Hampton, a former resident of Brookings, and a graduate of the Brookings-Harbor high school. The couple live at Albany.

COMMANDER VISITS

LCDR J. Douglas Bordwell, USN, has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Harriet G. Bordwell of Harbor, and his brother, Richard Bordwell of Brookings. CDR. Bordwell has just returned from the Middle East where he was attached to the U.S. Naval Staff in that area. During the Suez crisis he was headquartered off the east coast of Saudi Arabia. Later his duties took him to Pakistan, Ethiopia, and to countries on the east coast of Africa.

He says that the Brookings-Harbor areas is one of the finest coastal stretches he has seen.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESS CONVENTION IS SET

The recent announcement of the first ministerial Convention of Jehovah's witnesses ever held in Crescent City came as a pleasant surprise to several Brookings-Harbor residents who are associated with the Crescent City Congregation of the witnesses.

Planning to attend all sessions of the "Tell the Good News" circuit Convention scheduled for the Main Exhibit building of the Del Norte County Fairgrounds Aug. 30, 31, and September 1, are the Kenneth Warthan family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bennett, and others.

The group is completing plans to participate in the pre-convention work that is so vital to the smooth functioning of the three day Bible Convention.

INVITATION TO BOWL

Ladies interested in bowling are invited to contact Ann Olsen or call 3922 as there are openings for fall teams still available.

FOOTBALL UNIFORMS TO BE ISSUED ON MONDAY

Coach Doug MacFarlane will begin issuing football uniforms on Monday, August 26, to prospective players.

The uniforms will be issued at the high school gym from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The first call will be for the players of last years team, while those interested in trying out for the team this year will get their uniforms on Tuesday.

If the players or prospective players can't make it they are asked to notify MacFarlane or one of the other coaches so the uniforms can be saved.

MacFarlane said that shoes are available at Phillips Dad 'N Lad. This year the school has secured T-shirts, socks, etc. and the boys, instead of buying these are asked to bring $4.00 instead, which will cover laundry for these items for the year.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooper returned home from a three day conference in Monmouth, held August 11, 12, and 13. The conference was held under the sponsorship of the Oregon Education Association for presidents and other representatives of local teachers associations.

Harold Cooper was asked to attend in his office as president of the Brookings-Harbor teachers Association.

Several interesting panels were held. A visiting speaker was Karl Berns, who is assistant executive secretary of the National Education Association from Washington D.C.

GEM CLUB HAS PICNIC

Mt. Emily Gem and Mineral Club held their annual summer picnic at the Kendall Grover ranch on the Winchuck River, last Sunday.

Swimming, games and lots of good food added to the most enjoyable day. Many rockhounds from Brookings and Crescent City attended.

MASONS GET SHAKES

Light green asbestos shake siding for the new Masonic Temple has been given by a member of the Craft, according to Merwyn Palmer, in charge of procurement, with another member to bring it from the warehouse to the site.

Just as soon as it comes, workers will be needed to put it on. Value of this contribution is in excess of $600, according to Palmer.

Body-form seats are being built along the sidewalls of the main meeting room, designed and furthered by Charlie Bickner and Percy Hanks has a couple of platforms pretty well completed. Door and window frames are in process.

Just as soon as the main hall is roughed in, meetings will start there, and a special program is hoped for the first "communication".

As it will take a great many "man-hours" to tack on the shakes and the work is not very exacting, all members of the Craft are asked to keep themselves informed and lend a hand.

In the meantime, as he can get at it, Percy Evans is getting the electrical work underway with quite a lot of conduit already run and outlets spotted.

RETURNS

James W. Whipple, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lois Whipple of Star Route, Smith River, Calif., returned to San Diego, Calif., Aug. 12 aboard the repair ship USS Ajax after a seven-month tour of duty in the Far East.

While in the Pacific the Ajax spent most of her time in Sasebo Harbor, Japan where she repaired other units of the U.S. Pacific Fleet.

Between repair jobs, the Ajax crew visited Hong Kong and Yokosuka, Japan.

COMPLETES TRAINING

Lawrence A. Jacobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nordling of Brookings completed recruit training Aug. 9 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and the firing of all basic infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training new Marines are assigned to a unit for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.
