

SERVES CONGREGATION

John Bigham, from Central Point took over the Church of Christ services during Mr. Cays absence. Mr. Cays will be back in the pulpit this Sunday. Services are held at the I. O. O. F hall, with Sunday school held at 10 a.m. Worship service; a 10 a.m. Worship service at 11, and evening services at 7:30.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR...

Dear Friends:

We have certainly enjoyed the Pilot during the past year, and we have watched with great interest the steady improvements in every field of your fine weekly. Recently you have taken some noteworthy stands on your Editorial Page that will thwart the childish ideas of some of your citizens.

I hope Mr. Reed will soon recover. He and Mrs. Reed can offer some fine suggestions.

We have also noted, with real pleasure the rapid recovery of Wesley Smith, and the pleasure he and Justice Hans Nelson will enjoy enforcing the law as it is written.

Mrs. Rice misses the church and her Chorus as we watched for the latter during your excellent Azalea Festival. We rene our warmest regards to your staff, and our many friends in Brookings.

Sincerely yours,
Lee Rice

Hello Dear Friends:

We enjoy your paper and keep up with "Brookings News", we have many fine letters from friends out there, but I couldn't get along without the "Pilot".

We really like Colorado Springs but I miss Brookings--both friends and my SALMON fishing.

the trout fishing really don't interest me too much--after landing my big salmon.

Hope all are well,
Helen Rice

Win Marks, announcer for Station KBOY, Medford was visiting in Brookings with his family this week end.

The Brookings Camera Club will now meet on Monday night instead of Friday, with the first Monday meeting set for August 23, at 7:30 p.m. at the Bonn Motel recreation room.

All camera enthusiasts are invited to attend.

TO ENTERTAIN TEACHERS

The Brookings-Harbor Teachers Association will entertain the new teachers in the school system at a pot luck picnic in Azalea Park on Thursday, Aug. 29.
