ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Glass announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Darlene, to A 3/c Larry Allen Brown. The couple plans to be married on Saturday, September 14, at the Baptist Community church in Brookings. Janet was a recent graduate of Brookings High School.

Football Practice Open Monday

Coach Doug MacFarlane will put his charges through their first drill of the season on next Monday, aptly named Labor Day for the occasion.

MacFarlane will have 11 letter winners from last years successful Bruin squad back for the war this year, opening with a game with St. Bernard's of Eureka on September 14.

With the first game less than two weeks after the start of practice, MacFarlane, and his two assistants, Cal Pace, and Jesse Thurmond will have to work fast to get the squad in shape.

Practice will start at 1 p.m. Monday. All the boys who as yet haven't got shoes can pick them up at Phillips.

Boys still interested in going out for the team, but who didn't pick up their uniforms Monday will be able to do so on Monday September 2, at 9 a.m.

Returning lettermen cover the positions fairly well, but Coach Mac is shy an experienced quarterback, which may be the biggest problem to fill.

Lettermen back include: Ron McCabe, who started at full in many of the games last year.

Halfbacks, Dave Guess, Jerry Fox, and Jim Gribble.

Tackles, Bill Workinger, and Bert Clayton.

Guards, Ron Fallert, and Bill Guthrie.

Center, Bob Berger.

Ends, Bub Hansen, and Al Pate.

Mike Stacey visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gott this week. His mother, Jean Stacey is coming down from Salem Friday to take him home.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Brown and children visited relatives in Salem recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Dawes and children visited in Tillamook for two weeks. They stayed with Mrs. Dawes parents. Mr. Dawes flew to Oklahoma, but returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stuck and children visited relatives and friends in Tillamook recently.

JR. BOWLING TURNOUT GOOD

BOYS and GIRLS

Interested in having some mixed fun this year by joining one of these bowling leagues?

1. Junior Leagues--9th through the 12th grade (18 years old)
2. Intermediate Juniors--6th, 7th, 8th grades.
3. Bantam League--anyone who can lift a ball (to 13 years).

This entertainment will cost only 25 cents a game, with three games at most. The smaller children will bowl only 2 games.

The league bowling will start in October and will be every Saturday for 20 consecutive weeks.

There will be adult supervision, with free instruction every Saturday until the bowling league starts.

The instruction times for the various leagues is as follows:

Junior leagues at 1 p.m. Intermediate at 11:30 a.m. and Bantam league at 10 a.m.

The high school league meeting for organizing, will be held at the bowling alley on Saturday, Sept. 21, at 10 a.m.

If any youngster of any age is interested in joining a league, (need no instruction) they are asked to be at this meeting.

The high school Junior League will bowl mornings, the Intermediates and Bantam leagues on Saturday afternoons.

The coaches and supervisors are Mim Rettke, Marge Matson, Jean Malcolm, Brownie Brimm, Ersa Fischer, and Irene Stone-dahl.

Sixty five youngster attended the last session, and new classes are started every Saturday morning.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Nelson wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Julia Mae to James (Jack) Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson of Brookings. A fall wedding is planned.

Norine Harvey, a former resident of this city, and a former piano instructor, now teaching in Los Angeles, stopped here to visit friends. She is enroute to Seattle for a two week visit.
