

INSTRUCTIONS START FOR YOUNG BOWLERS

About 70 youngsters were given their first lessons in bowling Saturday morning, and more are expected to attend the sessions before the leagues open.

It is currently planned to have three full leagues, divided into age groups at the Azalea Lanes.

There has been a conflict noted with the Catholic Catechism classes, but Mrs. Bob Kerr, who has organized the group said that those youngsters are welcome to attend the 11:30 session.

Also the group is inter-eral sponsors are still needed for the youngsters on the high school level.

Also the group is also interested in finding sponsors which will give away small prizes, such as a milk shake for high games etc.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Sadler and daughter Joy returned home Thursday from their vacation. They spent a week at the Arawana Baptist camp on Mt. Hood, where Mr. Sadler was a counselor for a group of young folks.

The Baptist church will commence its fall schedule Sept. 8, with the young people meeting at 6:30 and the evening meeting at 7:30 commencing with a song service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pitney, an attorney from Los Angeles, Calif. who are old friends of C. Ed Dempsey stopped for a few hours on their way to Kimble Falls court on the Rogue River for a month of steel head fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Duncan went to Albany on Saturday to visit their daughter and family. On Sunday they attended the state fair at Salem with their son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pullen of Eugene, and Mrs. Duncan's sister and family of Portland. They returned on Monday.

Donna Churchill of Langlois, Mrs. Tim Murphy of Gold Beach Mrs. Zeller and Grandma Spangler of Langlois were here last week to visit the library and gets books for exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bordwell were in Klamath Falls this past weekend, visiting Pat and Marge Wilson, formerly of Brookings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howard have sold their lot on Pine st. and plan to move to Seal Rock in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyke Rettke and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Koons and family spent the weekend in Junction City visiting the William Jones. He is one of the Jones boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Connor Kessler have left Brookings to make their home in Redmond, Ore. They have leased their home to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Comfort.

Mrs. Neil Lafferty, wife of the state forester is the new librarian. She started on the 20th of August. She is a graduate of college, and has had some library training.

Max Brainard is in Portland at the Veteran's hospital for a check-up. He is expected home the latter part of the week.

Visitors at the Paul Eide home this weekend were Mr. and Mrs. George Poetschat and Butch and Ruth of Bend, Ore. Mrs. Poetschat is Mrs. Eides sister.

MEN

INDIVIDUAL AND TEAM OPENINGS FOR BOWLERS ON TUESDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHTS ALL ON A HANDICAP BASIS.

PHONE 2971

OR COME IN THIS WEEK

THESE LEAGUES START NEXT WEEK

AZALEA LANES

ENJOY AMERICAS MOST POPULAR SPORT

$529.95

INCLUDES SIX MONTHS SUPPLY OF FROZEN FOOD OF YOUR CHOICE

Whirlpool

16 CUBIC FOOT IMPERIAL FREEZER

model D116V holds 559 pounds of frozen food

IN DECORATOR-CHOICE EXTERIOR COLORS... WHITE PINK YELLOW GREEN

captures and holds the peak of flavor because food temperature won't vary more than 1°

wards

Gas and Appliance CENTER PHONE 2891

"WE SELL THE BEST AND SERVICE THE REST"