FINED FOR SETTING FIRE

C. O. McClain, of Brookings was fined $25 in Justice Court here Tuesday for burning a fire without first obtaining a fire permit.

The fire was started just north of the Ace Drive in Theatre just a few miles from Brookings.

He was arrested after a complaint was filed by Neil Lafferty, State Fire warden in this area.

Lafferty explained that State law prohibits setting any fires without a permit, and said that several unauthorized fires have been started recently, and said that in view of the extreme danger he is going to crack down on all violators.

A permit fire on the Wilbur Ostrander place got slightly out of control this weekend, and another fire had started elsewhere, but no damage was reported.

SIXTY NEEDED TO GIVE BLOOD

Sixty residents of the Brookings-Harbor-Smith River area are needed to give blood next Tuesday afternoon at the Smith River Community Hall.

Previously the "Walking Blood Bank" had taken care of all the needs of this area, as far as replacing blood used by area people. However, new methods used by the Crescent City hospital have made this plan unworkable, and now Brookings and the other communities must replace blood on a two to one basis.

And--Brookings is about 60 pints behind. The Blood mobile operating out of Eureka can't cross the state line, and hence the trip to Smith River by people from this area is necessary

Arrangements have been made by Robert Rettke, Exalted Ruler of Elks, and Frenchie Arrell, to bring the Bloodmobile to the Smith River location.

All persons are asked to register with Arrell's Rexall Drug Store or at Frank's Pharmacy this week. The plans are to have Plywood workers register at the plant.

The registration is important so that the Bloodmobile can be assured of a number of volunteers before they make the long trip down.

The V. F. W. Auxiliary, under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Harvey will have charge of the arrangements at the community Hall. Refreshments, such as coffee, juice, and some pastry will be served to the donors.

Transportation, will of course be furnished to Smith River, by Arrell, Rettke, et al. Forest Hysom has also volunteered a car to use in the caravan.

Arrell emphasized that this is the communities chance to make up the blood quota, and he called upon everybody to get in the act if at all possible.

Smith River people are also requested to give Blood at this time also.

A JAPANESE COSTUME IS TRIED ON BY JEANNIE EIKENBERRY, a seventh grader at the Brookings-Harbor school. It was part of a demonstration and lecture on the life of the Japanese people given by Miss Vivian Lemon, center, who was a missionary in Tokyo, Japan. Watching is a friend of Mrs. Lemon, Mrs. E. Gilbert Cays, wife of the minister of the Brookings Church of Christ. Mrs. Lewis is the teacher of the class. The youngsters were exceedingly interested in finding out how other people live.

Coach Doug MacFarlane will field a big, experienced squad Saturday afternoon, when the Brookings gridders play their initial game of the season at the Elmer Bankus field at 2 p.m.

St. Bernard's will be the opposition in the Bruins first game, and very little is known about them, other than they hail from Eureka.

Coach MacFarlane said, however, that he expects it to be one of the toughest games of the season.

Playing in only their second season the Bruins are gifted with both weight and experience, with seven letterwinners on the starting line-up.

However, MacFarlane, and his assistants, Cal Pace, and Jesse Thurman still have a tough row to hoe, in trying to field a good squad, with only one year of football background.

In the center slot will be experienced Bob Berger. Starting as quarterback will be Gary Midwood. Midwood has had little experience in directing the team, however.

At the halfbacks are old hands Dave Guess, and Jerry Fox, two of the "scat back" variety.

Old stand-by, he of the pumping legs, Ron McCabe will be in the fullback position.

The line weight is generally good, with Bullock at 178, Galambos at 168, Workinger at 184, Guthrie 178, Fallert 160, and Berger at 170.

Bert Clayton, another big boy was injured in practice, and will be out of the line-up for the first game at least.

Defensively MacFarlane will have a different line-up, with Fox and McCabe as safeties, and Jim Gribble, Fallert, Bullock, and Galambos as linebackers, and Al Pate and Ray Hansen as ends, Berger and Workinger as tackles and Guthrie as center.

Game time will be at 2 p.m. with tickets at .75 for adults and .35¢ for youngsters. Season tickets will be available at $2.50 for adults.

Next week's game will be the first conference encounter with Illinois Valley here. There has been a schedule change, and the game will be played on Saturday instead of Friday, for the convenience of the fans.
