BOOSTER NIGHT TO BE HELD FRIDAY BY CHETCO GRANGE

A cordial invitation is extended by the members of Chetco Grange to everyone in the area to attend the Booster Night Program to be held at the Grange Hall this Friday, Sept. 20th at 8 o'clock. An interesting program has been planned, with dancing and refreshments after its conclusion. GUSTAFSON'S RETURN FROM EUROPEAN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson returned home last Wednesday from a six months trip which took them to many parts of Europe. They drove to New York last April, taking a month for the trip, and then sailed to Germany on the USS America. They rented a car for their stay in Europe and visited Germany, France and other countries before going to Sweden where they visited relatives until the last of August. They had planned to sail home on a companion ship to the America, but decided to fly home to New York. They visited Mrs. Gustafson's two sons, Thor and Ole Ask and their families on Vashon Island in Puget Sound on their way home.

OFFICERS GETS NOTORIETY

Traffic patrolman George F. Berger received quite a write-up in the Seattle papers when he and another patrolman came across two youths who were in the act of stealing Berger's car.

Berger, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berger, and a former Brookings high school student, is now with the Seattle police force.

He and a second policeman came across the youths attempting to cross wires to start Berger's private car, and subdued the youths after they put up a struggle.

One of the youngsters was an escapee from a state training school. Berger has been in the force there about a year, after attending Portland University, and then O. T. I. He had spent some time in the Army communication service also.
