

Dennis Pool of Eureka spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Neketin.

Mrs. Edith Fullerton of Vale, Oregon is spending a few days in Brookings.

Tom Purvis and Jerry Coleman both of Grants Pass were here on Sunday.

Mrs. Rosa Hurst of Myrtle, a former resident of this community is visiting at the Frank Fanger home up the Chetco.

Mrs. Edward Conklin of Washington, D.C. was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Miller. She left by bus Sunday evening from Crescent City having planned to take the plane, but the fog was so thick the plane couldn't land.

Cubs To Meet

The Cub Scout pack 332, Brookings-Harbor area will have its first meeting of the current school year Friday, Sept. 27, at the VFW hall, at 8 p.m. All registered Cubs and their parents are invited to attend.

Registration for new boys who have reached their 8th birthday will be accepted. Parents are asked to accompany these boys so that accurate information may be obtained and the boys assigned to Dens.

P.T.A. PLANS MEETING NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT

The Brookings-Harbor PTA will have Miss Florence Beardley, Director of Elementary Education for Oregon, of Salem as its guest speaker.

Miss Beardley will begin her talk on "Are You of Today's World", directly at 8 p.m. The regular business meeting will follow.

The meeting will be held on Thursday, October 3, in the high school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kanick and daughters Joan and Diane drove to Corvallis the past week where Joan was registered at Oregon State College and is domiciled at Hawthorn Hall. She has been pledged to Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Miss Kanick was honored at two going away parties and presented with gifts—one by the choir of the Presbyterian church of which she was a member, and one by a group of girl friends at the home of Vivian Paul on Hillside st.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wicks and two sons of Grants Pass were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Crissey.

Mrs. Christine Nestpres, of Tulsa, Oklahoma is living in the Crissey guest house. She has fallen in love with our climate and views of the Pacific and will be here for some time.

Film Planned

A colored film will be shown Sunday evening at the Community Baptist church, entitled The Bible on the Table. Friends of the church will be welcomed. A Fellowship Hour will follow and coffee and cookies will be served afterwards by the women missionary society.

FIRST LITTLE THEATRE MEETING ON FRIDAY

The initial meeting of those interested in organizing a Community Little Theatre will be held in Room 5 at the High school Friday, Oct. 4th at 8 p.m.

Anyone for enthusiasm for any facet of such a project are urged to attend. Plans will be formulated for the activities of the group with an eye to the possibility of a production this winter.

A cordial invitation is extended to all newcomers of the area to get acquainted with their neighbors at this meeting.

TAKES TREATMENTS

Connie Evans of Connie's Cut n' Curl is in Medford this week taking some ultra sonic sound treatments for frayed tendons in her wrist. She hopes to be back in her shop next week if the doctor will allow it.

EMBLEM CLUB HAS SOCIAL MEETING

The Brookings Emblem Club #265 met in the Elks Club rooms for their first social meeting of the fall season.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by about 25 members with Mabel Ostrander and Pearl Faeson taking high scores for the games, and Leona Nickles went home with the Drip-O-Later that was donated by Erma Geotz.

Mrs. Marlene Purvis and Mrs. Gladys Henry were guests for the evening.

Very good "cold weather" refreshments were served by Ruby Lowe, Margaret Lane, and Bernice Hewitt.

The next business meeting will be on October 14.
