

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Hewitt enjoyed a visit over the weekend from Mr. Hewitt's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Stoutenberg and daughter Cindy of Portland, who left Sunday to return home.

Among the lucky hunters who went to the mule deer hunting area was Lester Walker, proprietor of the Harbor Garage, who brought down a nice 220 pound buck near Bly, where he and Cy Meadors spent the past weekend hunting.

Harbor News

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Hedberg returned home last week after a three week trip to Revelstoke, B.C. where they visited Mr. Hedberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedberg. The Fred Hedbergs', who went to Revelstoke last summer to go into lumbering there plan to return here in a few weeks to spend the winter months.

Ross Gulley, Horace Colbert and Howard Wallace returned home the middle of last week, after ushering in the deer season in the Silver Lake area in Eastern Oregon. They report a very successful trip as they each brought back a mule deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Phillips, Leo Lucas and his daughter Helen joined Mr. and Mrs. Gene Relling of Grants Pass in a hunting trip to the Klamath country. Both the Rellings got their buck, and a member of each of the local families were lucky enough to bring home a mule deer.

Mrs. Walter Thompson and four children returned home the middle of the week after spending several days in Corvallis and Eugene visiting relatives. Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Caroline Putman of Corvallis accompanied them here to spend several weeks at the Thompson home.

Clifford Banick left Thursday for Los Angeles where he will enter his second year of dental school at the University of California at Los Angeles. Clifford the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Banick, took his first year of dental work at Portland, and he has been visiting his parents for several weeks.

RETURNS FROM VISITS
Mrs. Clara Bowlin returned home during the weekend after making two official visits as President of District #7, VFW Auxiliary. She visited the Grants Pass Auxiliary on Thursday evening, and the Shady Cove Auxiliary on Friday evening. This week she will visit the Cave Junction Auxiliary on Thursday evening, and the Gold Hill Auxiliary on Friday evening. Mrs. Alice Beam, a well known former Brookings resident, is president of the Cave Junction auxiliary, so it is hoped that a good delegation of local members will accompany Mrs. Bowlin to Cave Junction Thursday.

FRANK HASSETT DEATH IS REPORTED
Frank B. Hasset, 85, who lived in Brookings since 1923 until he moved to Lebanon, Oregon two years ago, passed away on October 6.

He is the father of George Hasset, Brookings, and Mrs. Ruth Murphy, also of Brookings. Other survivors are his wife, Mrs. Frank Hasset, Lebanon sons Virgil, Eugene; and Charleof the White Sands, N. M. Air Force Base.
