The Amazing Tale of the Party
Line
lion

Once upon a time, right in this city, there lived a party lion. His life was a bed of roses. He'd go for weeks and never hear anyone say, "Oh, drat it—the lion is busy!" When other party lions (ones that were always busy) asked him how he did it, he merely replied, "In my neighborhood, all the families use their tele-phone party lion 'sharingly.'" He was certainly a pampered party lion.

RAL: Use your Party Line 'sharingly,' too.
The call that comes through may be for you.

GAMMA GAMMA HAS MODEL MEETING

A model meeting was held on October 8th by Beta Sigma Phi, Gamma Gamma Chapter.

The rushees present were Carol MacFarlane, Barbara Myers, Mary Mendenhall, Jo Mitts, and Millie Swanson. The rushing program was headed by vice-president Ronnie Ragland, with each of the members giving a little speech telling of the advantages of Beta Sigma Phi. A cute musical game was played and five of the members "interviewed" the five rushees.

Pat Widmer had the program for the evening. Her subject was "Prose". She described the different forms and types of literature. Prose can be enriching to the soul and you can gain adventure, knowledge, and enjoyment from it.

The meeting was held at the home of Ronnie Ragland with Nadine Hyatt and Charlotte Chapman serving the refreshments.
