

Electric Service

Electric service in your home, your business, farm factory, or industry of any kind, is the cheapest servant you can employ.

It's value is at a small cost. Night and day it is at your instant command, in a variety of uses. A small heater will take the chill off in a cold room. The Electric Range is the ideal method of food preparation. The electric pump for country homes and irrigation, returns comfort and profit. The iron, toaster, percolator, waffle iron, washing machine and vacuum cleaner, save time and effort and afford enjoyment in the home.

We are glad to serve you. We make easy terms on the purchase of electrical merchandise.

Radiola No. 17, a power socket device, eliminates batteries and cheapens cost. Long distance sending station are easily gottek. We wish you to investigate our service, merchandise, and financial plan when you figure electric service.

The entertainment which was to have been given at the M. E. Church the 13th. has been postponed until Monday, the 16th.

Sunday School will convene at the usual hour in charge of Mrs. Farnham. The Epworth League service will begin at 6:30 p. m. At this service new officers will be elected for the coming year. At 7:30 p. m. there will be the usual church service. The speaker for this occasion will be Rev. O. G. Oliver, Vice President of Willamette University.

Mrs. Tharp

Mary Alice Tharp was born near Sheridan, Oregon, May 8, 1859, and died at her home near Willamina January 7, 1928, at the age of 69 years, 7 months and 29 days. She was the daughter of Joseph and Mary Wood. On November 10, 1875 she was united in marriage to Joseph Tharp. She leaves to mourn her departure three sons and one daughter; Alonzo E. and Alv D. of Willamina, H. Zopher of Portland and Sophia J. Gregory of Dallas, Oregon, also an aged mother of 90 years, one sister Sarah Booth of Tillamook, Ore., seven grand children and four great grand children.

She was a faithful wife, and a kind and loving mother. At the time of her death she was caring for her mother, and was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand to all. She will be greatly missed by those who knew her.

Mrs. D. W. Fox is on the sick list.

Mrs. Kaveney, who has been visiting her son in Portland is at home again.

Paul Rouse and father-in-law, Mr. Bass, of Grand Ronde, transacted business in McMinnville Tuesday.

S. W. Paxson is steadily recovering from his sick spell. His many friends will be glad to hear this report.

Mrs. J. L. Farnham and Mrs. I. J. Green walked out to the Young farm and spent the day with Mrs. Young.

A number of neighbors called at the Hutchins home Saturday evening and gave them a farewell party. A good time was had by all.

Mrs. Fred Holt had the misfortune to fall on the back porch of the hotel Wednesday, from which she received quite severe injuries.

Mrs. Thurman Snow was taken to McMinnville last week Wednesday where she was operated upon for goiter at the hospital. She is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hutchins left Tuesday for southern California where they will make their future home. We are sorry to lose this good family.

FOR RENT—12 acres river bottom land near Amity. About six acres in cultivation, suitable for garden. Fine tomato land. Small shack. Write or see I. J. Green, Willamina, Ore.

Work of strengthening the Kershaw store is being done this week. A number of columns will be placed through the center length of the store. The concrete work is being done by M. H. Blackall and the carpenter work by Chas. Cook.

Notice to Dog Owners.

The dog tax is now due, after March 1st., 1928. A penalty equal to tax will be imposed on all delinquent owners of dogs. Deputy Assessors will collect unpaid dog license fees and penalty and report all delinquents.

Pay your tax now and save this extra expense. Female $2.00. Male or spayed female $1.00. This tax applies to all dogs over eight months old.

Elijah Corbett
County Clerk.

Fred Coughlin, a progressive farmer from the Dallas country, has returned to the Willamina garage for a few days.

W. C. T. U. Institute will be held Jan. 25th at the M. E. church to begin at 10:30 a. m. and last all day. State President, Mrs. Ada Jolley and county President Mrs. Lottie Hannon will conduct the Institute. The local union will furnish several numbers for the program and a lunch will be served at noon. Come whether members or not.
