Ray Coyle transacted business in Portland Thursday.

Delmar McMillan is laid up with a case of blood poisoning in his right hand.

Mrs. Lloyd Blanchard returned home Friday from McMinnville hospital.

Muriel Rugg and Dorothy Drill are home for the holidays from Monmouth normal.

Paul fundman transacted business in McMinnville Wednesday afternoon.

A logging locomotive has been purchased and will arrive and be installed at the Kirby mill next week.

The logging operations at New Grand Ronde closed down the last of the week for the holidays.

John Durst was taken to the McMinnville hospital Tuesday afternoon and was operated upon for appendicitis. He is doing well.

O. C. Yocom came in from Tillamook and spent Sunday in Willamina. He stated that the storm of last week did much damage to the highway in places.

Carl Hussy had the misfortune to break the elbow cap on his right arm Monday when he was struck by a haul back line at the Kirby mill.

Holt's camp on the Luchiemute has closed down for the holidays. Joe Kleindenst, Joe Matocha and Pat Wilson are among those from there who are home for the annual vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krier of Tillamook spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Krier.

Mrs. Jim Smith ran her car into the Thomson confectionery building at Sheridan Monday. Mrs. Newbill and Harriet Blanchard were with her. The only damage done was the breaking of a bumper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harpole have purchased a Hudson Sedan. Ray and Harley Meyers went to Portland Wednesday and brought the car out. Mrs. Meyers accompanied them to Newberg where she spent the day.

Mrs. Gilmore, mother of Mrs. John Durst, arrived in Willamina Wednesday afternoon from Junction City and will remain with Mrs. Durst during the illness of John who is in the McMinnville hospital.

The long planned for steam heating system has been installed in high school gymnasium. The room was heated for the first time for the play Tuesday evening. The room was very comfortable and the new heating plant was greatly appreciated by those in attendance there.

The play, "The Little Clodhopper" was well attended by a very appreciative audience. The play was presented in a very pleasing manner and the special numbers by the orchestra between the acts were greatly enjoyed. The teachers of our high school and the students who presented the play deserve much credit for their good work.

A very serious accident occurred at the Kirby mill yesterday forenoon, when Earl Daniels, was caught under logs that were being unloaded from a truck.

Daniels was the driver of the truck and had stopped at the mill pond to unload the logs. He knocked the block from under the outside log so that the load might be rolled off, and as he did this, the entire load began to roll, catching him underneath before he could get out of the way. Doctors and an ambulance were immediately sent for and he was taken to a Portland hospital. The doctors found, upon a hurried examination, that a number of serious injuries had been received by Mr. Daniels. His skull was fractured on both sides of the head, his front teeth were broken out, the lower jaw bone was broken at the chin and his side crushed in, resulting in several fractured ribs.

Award Left to Women

The Publisher's Weekly says: "The French Femina Vie Tenreuse prize of 5,000 francs is awarded annually on the same day as the Goncourt prize. It is offered conjointly by the Femina, a magazine much like the American Vogue, and the Vie Tenreuse, another French monthly periodical, to the best work of imagination in the French language, prose or poetry, by a man or woman. The unique thing about this prize is that the jury of award is made up entirely of French women writers."

Matchless Fire

When Jim Bachelor, now a member of the L. A. Y., joined the Boy Scouts, he came home and asked his father to lend him his cigar lighter.

Father gazed at his young son in wide-eyed amazement. Did the Scouts welcome their tenderfoot with a smoker? He opened his mouth to start the well known and popular lecture but Jim saw it coming and beat him to it.

"You see, dad, you have to make a fire without matches, so I thought your cigar lighter would be handy. That is, if it still works."

Food for Thought

The young wife was heartbroken. "What's the matter?" asked a friend.

"Oh, my husband is so absent-minded. After breakfast he left a tip on the table, and when I handed him his hat and coat he gave me another dime."

"Well, that's nothing to worry about. Just force of habit."

"That's just what worries me. He kissed me, too, when I gave him his coat and hat."

Precaution

The family was seated at the table enjoying dessert. "I think I'll take my tomorrow's share now," said father jokingly, as he helped himself to a second slice of cake.

"Jean, an only child, glanced covetously at the one remaining piece on the plate."

"I'll take my piece now, too," she said quickly, "before father gets his day-after-tomorrow's share."
