"Yule"

"Yule," that nice old-fashioned word used sometimes to mean Christmas, has always had a fascination for students of languages, because none of them has ever made quite certain of its derivation.—Montreal Herald.

Santa Adds the Romance

Santa Claus puts the romance and the poetry into the children's Christmas gifts.

Christmas a State of Mind

Christmas is observed just because it had, and still has, to do with people. Christmas is a state of mind. It is a beautiful spirit.

CHRISTMAS PROVERBS

TO ISSUE an invitation is to make ourselves responsible for our guest's happiness as long as he is under our roof.

It is a sin against hospitality to open your door and shut up your countenance.

The giver makes the gift precious.

A gift with a kind countenance is a double present.

The charitable give out at the door and God puts in at the window.

There is no grace in a gift that sticks to the fingers.

Hearts alone buy hearts.

Kindness like grain increases by sowing.—Montreal Herald.

"Good Will Toward Men"

"Good will toward men"—this was what the morning stars said when they sang together that morning in Bethlehem 2,000 years ago. Let the same message be in all our hearts this Christmas day.

Christmas Day

And any day is Christmas
When shepherd thoughts at morn
Behold the star that glows above
A good impulse, new-born!
—Edith Daley.

Better and Better Christmas

"Never was the world so wide for happiness, never so deep for the current of friendliness. Never so many men of good will, never so ardent a desire for peace on earth, never so many things to make Christmas merry."
—Woman's Home Companion.

Lighting Christmas Candles

The custom of lighting candles at Christmas is an ancient one. According to the old idea, these candles were to be lighted on Christmas eve, placed on the window sill, and left burning there all night.

Christmas' Namesake

The most important of Christmas' namesakes is Natal, a province of South Africa. The Portuguese discovered it on Christmas day and named it Natal since it was sighted on Christ's natal day.

Read About First Christmas

The natural way to turn the current of your thoughts in the desirable direction is to read the accounts of the First Christmas.

Christmas Renews Our Faith

We come nearer renewing our faith at Christmas than at any other time of the year. Alas for us, if we do not take this chance for this!

Death of Herbert McClure

Herbert McClure, who would have been fifteen years of age Monday, only child of Pat McClure, died at McMinnville hospital last evening. He had been having trouble with a gathering in his head for several days. This ulceration broke on the inside of his head, the first of the week and he seemed to be alright until Wednesday night when he was taken very seriously ill. He was taken to McMinnville hospital Thursday morning. When physicians examined him, it was found that septic meningitis had set in and was doing its deadly work, and that nothing could be done to save his life.

Funeral services will be held on his birthday, Monday at Drain and he will be laid to rest in the cemetery there beside his mother who died when he was a little boy.

Herbert was a student in Willamina grade school and was well loved by his many companions. He will be greatly missed in his large circle of young friends.

Our tenderest sympathy goes out to this lonely and sorrowing father in this time of his bereavement.

A Fine Christmas Plant

The Solanum Capsicastrum or what is better known by its old-fashioned name of Jerusalem cherry has become a very popular Christmas plant; and nearly all greenhouses grow a quantity of these for their Christmas trade.
