Quick Collections

The quick collection of a check is of great importance. Deposit your checks the day you receive them, in your account at this Bank. We promptly put through our customers' checks for collection. Until collected and the money remitted, of course they are not cash items. Delay in collection of checks may often mean lack of funds to meet them upon their arrival at the bank on which they are drawn.

Movies Saturday

SEE the free movie show Saturday. It is put on for your benefit by the merchants of Willamina. Bring the whole family.

After the show we will be pleased to supply your wants from our store. Our prices are as low as is reasonable with quality goods. There is none better than our Preferred Stock goods, as you all know. Also, you will find a full line of Standard label goods, which have their main appeal on price. They are the best in their grade that we can secure.

When you are ready to put in your Fall supply, make a list and bring it in to us to figure on. You can't afford to drive your car to other towns for your supplies. Remember your home-town merchant is the one who stays with you when the pocket-book is thin. Therefore, give him a chance to figure on your cash orders.

Yours truly,
KENNETH.

W. R. Neely made a trip to Portland Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Huddleston and Mrs. Hallie Cobb were Willamina people who attended the American Legion convention at Baker last Wednesday to Saturday. Mrs. Huddleston went as delegate from the Sheridan Auxiliary, Mr. Huddleston as a member of the Sheridan Legion Band, while Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Huddleston of Willamina, Mrs. Edna Faulconer and Mrs. Ray Goldsmith, of Sheridan, composed one quartet that sang at the convention, being accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ila Branson, also of Sheridan. They report a very pleasant trip and an interesting and instructive convention.

Arnold Neely returned home Sunday from a pleasant vacation spent at Gearhart. He was accompanied by his friend, Theo. Bergmann, of Portland, who will visit here for two weeks.

Mrs. Wm. H. Jarvis was a Portland visitor Monday.
