

Local and Personal

Henry Wilson and sister, Miss Victoria Wilson, of Willamina, visited their nephew, Irl Booth, and family, 3 miles south of Amity last week. They report that Mr. Booth has been very successful in the poultry business, which he engaged in last spring. He now has 6000 young chicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Klees returned home Sunday from Tacoma, Wash., where the former had been as Northwestern Oregon district delegate to the United Artisans convention. Mr. Klees reports a pleasant trip and a very successful convention. The Winthrop Hotel at Tacoma, was the scene of the final session Saturday afternoon, when between 300 and 400 delegates and officers witnessed the impressive competitive exhibition put on by eight drill teams. The climax of the week's business and festivities was the banquet and dance at the Winthrop, attended by more than 1000 persons, including the lodge dignitaries, delegates and their friends. The hotel management referred to the ball as "the most colorful event in the history of our hotel." The Artisans have a large membership in Willamina, Grand Ronde, and communities.

Petitions have been filed with the postoffice department asking for two extensions of delivery service on Willamina Route One. The first extension would start at the end of Gold Creek and run one-half mile to the J. H. Patterson place, and would serve nine families. The second extension would be from Old Grand Ronde the remainder of the distance to the W. E. Crowell place, one-half mile, the route now serving one mile of the 1 1/2 miles distance. Eight additional families would have improved mail service by this extension.
