THE FEATHERHEADS

Felix Went Too Far

Position
"So your boy Josh is looking for a position."
"Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel.
"What kind of a position does he desire?"
"I dunno exactly. But to suit Josh's tastes these days, it'll have to be something graceful and easy."

The Embarrassing Effort
"Good intentions ought to count for something," remarked the generous person.
"But they don't," replied Miss Cayenne. "The most impolite acquaintance I have is one who lets you see what an effort she is making to be polite."

Try It
"Absence makes the heart grow fonder," murmured the sentimental youth.
"Oh, I don't know," remarked the matter-of-fact girl. "Did you ever try presents?"—Buen Humor (Madrid).

Modern Twist
"My wife bought a new hat."
"Eugenie, I suppose?"
"No, her name's Emily. Why?"

Economical Budget
The two housewives were discussing money matters. "My husband and I attend to our budget every evening," said Mrs. Brown. "We find it most economical."
"How is that, my dear?" asked Mrs. Smith.
"Simple," she replied. "By the time we get it properly balanced it is too late to go anywhere."—London Answers.

HER BIG AIM

Friend—Why did you call the baby Marigold?
Mother—Because that's what I want her to do.

A real companion is one whom you can't have to talk to.

Not in the Regulations
A policeman caught a flapper in the act of tearing a letter into tiny bits, which she threw to the ground in a park, and the following conversation took place.
Policeman—You ought to know better, miss, than to throw rubbish around in the park.
Flapper—What impudence! That's not trash; that's a love letter from my sweetie!

Result the Same
I heard my dear wife, says a proud husband, telephoning recently in these words.
"Oh, Fanny, sell every stock you own, England's gone on the gold standard!"
"Off it, you mean!" I roared.
"Never mind, dear," she said sweetly. "Fanny will be just as much frightened one way as the other."—Boston Globe.

Left His Tracks
Little Dorothy (at supper table)—Daddy, mamma says the sandman is coming here tonight.
Daddy (struggling bravely with some spinach)—He's already been here.

How Old?

He doesn't look a day over fifty. And feels like forty.
At the age of 62.

That's the happy state of health and pep a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-alive—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of headache, biliousness, constipation. But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better in every way. You will never need to take another laxative.

Give the children a little of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a sound stomach, active liver and strong bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every way. Syrup pepsin isn't expensive.

It Works

Visitor (at farm)—There doesn't seem to be any work to do, yet I see you have a sign, "Farm Help Wanted."
Farmer—Oh, that's better than a dog to keep the tramps away.

Apt Illustration

Smith—Hope is really a wonderful thing.
Jones—True. One little nibble keeps a man fishing all day.—Stray Stories.

It's common sense

When doctors all agree that your body needs Vitamins, it's common sense to see that you get them. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil contains both Vitamins A and D in guaranteed potency. Vitamin A builds resistance to winter colds. Vitamin D aids growing children in the development of bones and teeth. This emulsion has no fishy flavor. Men and women find it a pleasing, palatable way of taking cod liver oil. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. Sales Representative, Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Inc., New York.

Mother Snake on Guard

A Florida rattlesnake guarding her young in the reptile house of the New York zoological park aroused much interest. When the keeper approached and touched the gate of the cage the mother came shooting out of a corner to see what was going on. Even snakes are capable of individual characteristics it seems for in all his thirty-two years dealing with them Mr. Toomy, the keeper never saw one act as this one did.

Modern Appreciation

"Oh, Bertie! Listen to that marvelous jazz!"
"Why, that's classical music they're playing."
"Well, it sounds good enough to me jazz."—Stray Stories.

QUALITY SINCE 1833 McKesson & Robbins SOLD AT ALL DRUG STORES

Gaelic Sign Too Attractive
Merchants of Dingwall, Scotland decided that during the annual Mod week last year they would make a hit with visitors by having all signs over their stores in Gaelic. One non-Gaelic business man got a neighbor to write an advertisement of the excellent quality of his wares. When a crowd stormed the place the merchant learned that his sign advertised that any customer coming into the store at a certain time would get "three free drinks." And down came the sign in record time.

Matter of Business

"They say Dave married Gladys for money." "Yes, to get back what he'd given her!"

Man's boundary is moderation.
