KNEW HER BIBLE

"So you attend Sunday school regularly?" said the minister to little Eve.

"Oh, yes, sir."

"And you know your Bible?"

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Could you tell me something that is in it?"

"I could tell you everything that's in it."

"Indeed!" and the minister smiled.

"Sister's young man's photograph is in it," said Eve, promptly, "and mother's recipe for face cream is in it, and a lock of my hair cut off when I was a baby is in it, and the ticket for dad's watch is in it."—Tit-Bits Magazine.

LIVES BY HER LAYS

"So your hen's a poet, you think?"

"To be sure she is—doesn't she live by her lays?"

Easy to Wash Finest of Fabrics, Using Care

Many of the attractive rayon fabrics on the market nowadays are washable, with care; handle them just as you would dainty silks.

To be safe, test new colored garments before washing, by squeezing a sample or inconspicuous portion of the material in clear, lukewarm water for five minutes or so. Also test colored trimmings.

Remove buttons, buckles, etc., which might be unwashable, and mend any holes, especially in knitted garments.

Many of the crepey, and novelty rayons tend to shrink when wet, but can usually be restored to size as they dry and are ironed. So it is well to measure them before wetting.

Always use mild, neutral soap flakes when washing rayons and other fine fabrics. Make rich lukewarm or cool suds with mild soap flakes. Put in the garment and wash quickly by squeezing the suds through the material. Don't let colored garments soak, even for a few minutes, nor remain in a heap, or rolled up while wet, as this is likely to cause streaking. And don't rub the fabrics, as this is likely to spread the threads and to fade the color.

Thoroughly rinse rayons in three lukewarm or cool rinse waters. Squeeze out the moisture and roll the garment in a dry turkish towel to absorb the excess moisture. Immediately unroll, and dry indoors, or in the shade—never in the sun. Iron on the wrong side with a warm, never a hot, iron.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills put up 60 years ago. They regulate liver and bowels.—Adv.

Tung Tree Valuable

A new industry, growing of tung oil trees, is spreading inland from the Mississippi shore. The trees were introduced to the United States from China several years ago. They are grown for a valuable oil, which is extracted from nuts.

THE FEATHERHEADS

Hair Raising Stuff

Not Fair

Mabel—Why did Belle break the engagement?

Edith—He was so untrustworthy. She found he was engaged to four other girls and he had only told her of two.—Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

Foot in It

Mr. B.—What delightful manners your daughter has.

Mrs. W. (proudly)—Yes, you see she has been away from home so much.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

NO ALARM CLOCK

"Are you troubled badly with insomnia?"

"I should say so. If I were to sleep two hours on a stretch I would think that I was a regular Rip Van Winkle."

SHORT AND SWEET

Professor Bug—Gracious, what were you two fighting about?

The Victor—About half a minute.

Practice Improves

Mrs. Bristow—Do you find your gymnasium work helpful?

Mrs. Brisk—Helpful? Why this morning I was the first one to reach a bargain counter out of a crowd of 100 starters.—Answers Magazine.

Strange Name

Nurse—Has your husband pajamas?

Wife—I don't remember what the doctor called it, but he has frightful pains in his stomach.—Muenchner-Illustrierte Presse (Munich).

Not So Ignorant

Small Boy—I don't think the gentleman next door knows much about music.

Mother—Why?

Small Boy—Well, he told me this morning to cut my drum open and see what was inside it.—Gazette (Birmingham, Eng.).

Good Sign

First Woman—How does your husband like the new hat you bought?

Second Woman—Very well, I think. He hasn't noticed it.

MACHINE AGE STUFF

"Does he blow his own horn?"

"Not much! Hires a chauffeur."

Too Much

As a special treat the vicar provided sausage-rolls at the tea party for the oldest inhabitants of the village. During the meal he walked around among his guests with a plate of rolls. Presently he stopped beside Mrs. O'Malley, who had taken the sausage out of her roll and left the pastry on the side of her plate.

"Don't you like the pastry, Mrs. O'Malley?" he kindly asked.

The old woman looked up and shook her head.

"Nay, vicar," she replied. "I've eaten the dog, but I can't manage the kennel."—Answers Magazine.

Disquieting Thought

He—Darling, let us keep our engagement a secret!

She—Yes, love—but I must tell Lily. The horrid creature said I should never find a man foolish enough to marry me.—Sie und Er (Zoffingen).

Couldn't Say That Now

Hubby—You didn't have a rag on your back when I married you.

Wife—Anyway, I've plenty of them now.—Stray Stories Magazine.

No Disputes

"You say you never clash with your wife?"

"Never. She goes her way and I go hers."—Tit-Bits Magazine.

In School

Teacher—Now, James, tell me what animal is web-footed.

James—The spider.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

PERSPICACITY

"Jones is a man who never fails to see his duty clearly."

"True; but usually he sees it in time to avoid it."

Home Body

Lady (engaging new maid)—And what denomination are you?

Maid—Well, mum, mother goes to the Baptist church and father to the Methodist, but speaking for myself, I'm wireless.—Boston Transcript.

Vanished

"That chap is one of those fellows who will promise anything."

"But does he keep his promises?"

"He must, nobody sees or hears anything of them afterward."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.
