Further reports are lacking, but we see them patronizing the restaurant quite regularly.

Conference on Banking

NEW YORK. — An eastern states conference on banking, service will be held by the American Bankers Association in Philadelphia January 23 and 24 as a part of the organization's nationwide program on banking development, it has been announced.

Robert V. Fleming, president of the association, will preside over the meetings. It is stated that this conference will be the first of several to be held in various parts of the country presenting a program the details of which are now in the course of preparation.

The general topic of the conference will embrace the managerial, legislative and operative problems confronted by all classes of banks. An outstanding phase of the meetings will be the development of plans for promoting a general better public understanding in regard to bank functions and policies.

The Times will be glad to receive wood, potatoes or other produce on subscription accounts.
