

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Scene in the Sistine chapel as five new princes of the church prostrated themselves before the altar, following which they received red hats. 2—Miss Ann Lindsay Clark of Boston and her fiancé, John Roosevelt, son of President Roosevelt, shown in Washington following a luncheon date. 3—Sir Archibald Kerr, newly appointed British ambassador to China, who succeeds Sir Hughe Knatchbull-Huggesen, who was shot in an air attack some months ago by Japanese airmen.

Barnegat Pete Is Privileged Pet of Town

Barnegat Pete, a deer adopted by Barnegat, N. J., after it escaped a forest fire three years ago, is dressed in a red checked coat and red and white catalin necklace so that he will not be shot during the hunting season. The necklace holds a plaque on which is engraved, "This is Barnegat Pete—Barnegat, N. J., children's pet—Don't Shoot!" Pete, of course, has the freedom of the village and here a state trooper holds up traffic to give the pet right of way.

RUMANIAN PREMIER

Octavian Goga, new premier of Rumania. A Christian socialist leader, and an avowed anti-Semitic politician, Goga was requested by King Carol to form a ministry following one of the most serious cabinet crises Rumania has ever faced.

Out Where the Winter Fun Begins

Snow spray sparkles in the sun at Yosemite national park as two skiers execute a double Christiana. Yosemite is only one of a number of national parks administered by the Department of the Interior that are famous for their winter sports seasons. Others include Mount Rainier, Rocky Mountain and Sequoia.

"Quotations"

Instead of teaching my younger readers the conventions nowadays, I find I have to adapt the conventions to my young readers.—Emily Post.

It is not in intelligence that we lack for the overcoming of evil, but we lack in the unselfish responsible devotion of men.—Albert Einstein.

There is no compensation for living—not money—not power—not position—as great as the love of friends.—Vice President Garner.

It is character that determines the success of a man or a nation.—Irving T. Bush.

Man's desire to understand is one of the marks that differentiate him from the animal.—Prince de Broglie.

Today's Trust

THIS day is before me. The circumstances of this day are my environment; they are the material out of which, by means of my brain, I have to live and be happy, and to refrain from causing unhappiness in other people. It is the business of my brain to make use of this material. Not tomorrow! Not next year! But now!

Today, exactly as today is! the facts of today, which, in my unregeneracy, I regarded primarily as anxieties, nuisances, impediments, I now regard as so much raw material from which my brain has to weave a tissue of life that is comely.

HOW to SEW

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

A French Heading for Your Draperies.

WHETHER you line your new draperies or not will depend on how heavy the material is. It is important, however, that the top of draperies be stiffened when a French heading is used. A soft canvas which may be purchased in drapery departments is generally used for this purpose. From four to six inches is a good depth to cut the heading canvas. Turn the top of the curtain material over it and sew as at A.

Start to sew the plait about an inch down from the top of the drapery and sew it the depth of the stiffening, as shown here at B. Pinch this plait into three small plaits and, starting two inches down from the top, sew through as at C. Sew these plaits the depth of the stiffening, so that they appear as shown here at D. Now turn to the wrong side and sew a ring to the back of each plait as at E.

Every Homemaker should have a copy of Mrs. Spears' new book, SEWING. Forty-eight pages of step-by-step directions for making slipcovers and dressing tables; restoring and upholstering chairs, couches; making curtains for every type of room and purpose. Making lampshades, rugs, ottomans and other useful articles for the home. Readers wishing a copy should send name and address, enclosing 25 cents, to Mrs. Spears, 210 South Desplaines St., Chicago, Illinois.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a tonic which has been helping women of all ages for nearly 70 years. Adv.

The starving actor cried, "Give me bread, give me bread." And the curtain came down with a roll.

World "Times Square"

In his book, "Junglemania," Arthur Torrance, M. D., says: "Singapore is the Times Square of the universe. There are as many ships passing through Singapore as there are taxicabs in Times Square at theater time. There are just as many shows—shows that you don't have to pay to see: Sailors from every port in the world; women in strangely alluring costumes; silk shops; peculiar bazaars such as are found in China, Ceylon and Java; jewels and precious stones sold at street corners by a polyglot of carefree people who speak languages that don't have any dictionaries."

"FIVE Minus TWO Leaves FOUR"

WRONG? Well, yes—and no. The arithmetic of your school days taught that "If Mary had five dollars and spent two . . ." three dollars remained.

But that is mathematics—not shopping! In managing a home . . . guarding a limited family income . . . we've simply got to do better than Mary did. We must sharpen our buying wits . . . ascertain where the dollars of extra value lurk . . . take five dollars to town and get much more for the money spent.

Fortunately, there are ever-willing guides right at hand—the advertisements in this newspaper. Advertised merchandise is often exceptional value merchandise. It makes dollars S-T-R-E-T-C-H.
