OLD GRAND RONDE

By M. PETERSEN, Sr.

Frank Quenelle and Pearl McGee were married at McMinnville January 3. They gave a dance at the community hall Friday evening.

Paul Lafferty, one of the Salmon river cut-off victims, was buried Saturday from the St. Michaels Mission church, Rev. G. Scheffold officiating. Was buried at Grand Ronde cemetery. His grandfather Frank Wheeler raised him. His mother had died about 19 years ago. His father Paul lives at Grand Ronde. Large attendance at the funeral.

Paul Lafferty was a very fine young man, industrious and sober, he was so well known by the writer from a baby up. His mother was out of the Winslow family, pioneers of Grand Ronde. He has a sister living at San Francisco, a step-mother and six half-sisters and more than a score of relatives besides. Ralph Easter, another victim, was raised by his grandmother Clementine Jeffries of Grand Ronde. He was always a steady good boy.

Great-grandmother Petersen's birthday brought many greetings and presents from relatives and neighbors. She is 81 years old and is enjoying fairly good health. W. S. Lauthers sent her a box of Oakland, Calif., candy and a load of wood.

Joe McKay called, his wife driving. Cody and Pauley are sawing wood for T. J. Werth.

Enebit and family have moved to their new home along the Salmon River road.

Two CCC men from Tennessee stopped at Petersen's. They work on the Trask River road.

One of the Jack Langley boys was taken to Chemawa suffering with pneumonia.

Alvina LaChance called Saturday, while her husband Ed was repairing a drag saw for John Smith.

The night frosts the last few days are damaging the fall grain sowing.

Jerry Winslow's dog was run over by an auto.

Jacob Schryver has stove wood for sale at his home, the former Harold Bates place.

W. S. Lauthers visited Petersen Sunday, for dinner, and split some wood for the family.

M. Petersen has written a letter to the city mayor of Sidney, Australia, for information regarding the system of Tarrant's abstract law, which is in operation in Australia.

Mrs. Joseph Dolp, who had a long vacation at Seattle, is home now.

Arthur Quakey, wife and son called on M. Petersen; wanted to rent a farm. They live at Valley Junction.

Reinhold Lehrman has sold his farm to the government and has bought a farm near Independence. They are moving this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vandehey is expected home in a few days from Seattle.

T. J. Werth has ordered his renters to move as the United States is taking his land to make homes for Indian families.

Homer Holmes called on M. Petersen and Wm. Langley. Rose Larsen, William's housekeeper, said she had a high as 20 guests for dinner during the holidays.

New Grand Ronde schools are open again after the scare of contagious sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter and Mrs. Thomas Bean went to Portland, visiting Mrs. Bean's brother Lindsey Menard. Mr. Sumpter went to see his doctor regarding his paralyzed legs.

M. Petersen is a real estate officer. Three men from Newberg, peddling hams and bacon, took advantage of our neighbors by giving short weights. Petersen lost four pounds that way.

A brother of Neal Schryver who has been suffering with pneumonia is recovering.

Magnus Bannach brought his three children home for the holidays from the Catholic sisters' home near Oregon City. Magnus batches on his farm, the old Frank Norwest place.

NOTICE TO DAIRYMEN

USE

AQUA-MIN

FOR THE DAIRY COW

The Dairymen who wish to keep his cows in good health and get the greatest return for the feed supplied, should investigate Aqua Min.

It is essential that minerals be supplied to the dairy cow from a source other than the food given.

Minerals must be in solution to be utilized by the body tissues.

Aqua-Min contains minerals in solution, the same as they are in the body fluids.

You cannot afford to be without Aqua-Min for your herd.

Please call at our office, write, or see our agent in Yamhill county, Mr. Willis Kirkpatrick of Kernville, Oregon, for full information.
