

By the Waters of Chemquassabamticook

Plow Aids Max In Ring Comeback

Max Schmeling, former world's heavyweight champion, pictured behind the plow he used at Pommernia, Germany, in training for his comeback fight with Adolph Heuser for the European championship. The plow evidently worked miracles for "Der Moxie," for he knocked out Heuser in 47 seconds.

British Minister of War Inspects Territorial Army

Leslie Hore-Belisha, British minister of war, is shown during his inspection of a South London anti-aircraft station recently as he made the rounds of several of the "war stations" and anti-aircraft units in and around the city. The stations are manned by members of Britain's territorial army who are undergoing their annual training.

Nazi Schuschnigg

Kurt Schuschnigg Jr., son of the last chancellor of independent Austria, now a Nazi prisoner, was revealed recently as having joined the Nazi ranks as a member of the uniformed Hitler youth. The boy, 13 years old, was allowed to visit his father several times while the former chancellor was held prisoner in a Vienna hotel.

40 Mile Soaring Record Established

Chester J. Decker of Glen Rock, N. J., recently established a new American soaring record in Elmira, N. Y., for goal flight and return. Decker flew to Hammondsport and returned to Harris Hill, a 40-mile round trip, in three hours, seven minutes. Previous record was held by Richard C. duPont of Wilmington, Del., who in 1936 flew 34 miles.

AROUND the HOUSE Items of Interest to the Housewife

Getting Ready to Can.—Zinc covers for fruit jars should be washed, then dipped in a solution of soda, dried, and allowed to sun for several hours.

Aid to Golfers.—If the strap on your golf bag makes your shoulder sore, take a piece of old sheepskin and mount it on the strap with the wool inside.

Pink Mayonnaise.—Mayonnaise can be given a decorative pink by the addition of tomato catsup or cooked tomatoes.

Handy Duster.—The duster with a long handle is a convenience for the housewife who has a bad back.

Removing Finger Marks.—Sweet oil will remove finger marks from varnished furniture.

Stippling Linoleum.—If your linoleum is showing signs of growing old, try painting and stippling it. First remove wax and grease. Then use a good floor enamel or paint, put on two coats, and stipple. A plain color shows footprints too easily.

Crocheted Edgings For Every Purpose

Pattern No. 2002.

You'll want to crochet these edgings—they're all different widths—since they lend themselves to so many uses. Some are suitable for round doilies. Pattern 2002 contains directions for making edgings; illustrations of them and stitches; materials required.

Whatever Else Might Be Said—He Was an Optimist

The fight was between two heavyweights, Puncher Smith and Killer Jones. In the first round, Puncher hit the floor hard five times, and just before the bell went down for a full count.

The winner was rushed to the mike where he said a few modest words. By this time Puncher had come to, and staggered to his feet. The announcer coaxed him to say a few words to the millions listening in.

Puncher tried to keep his knees from collapsing. He heard sounds like the chirping of thousands of birds. Then he said to the mike: "Ladies and gentlemen—this is the greatest fight of my career—and may the best man win!"
