

GRAND RONDE

(By M. PETERSEN)

Glorious weather we have and we had in Grand Ronde Sunday, September 17. It was Mr. and Mrs. Petersen's 60th anniversary of their wedding; 45 friends were invited, also the general public to enjoy themselves in the shade. Nearly 42 plates were set and six more friends came in. Rev. Scheffold led in prayer. M. Petersen and wife were so overjoyed to find such happiness. Many asked me how I feel after being married 60 years. I said I feel like I was married yesterday. Mrs. Petersen sang some of her favorite songs.

Credit for the success of a good time and dinner we give Mrs. Burl Perrie and Mrs. Max Madison, both neighbors, for their unselfish work of two days preparing can never be estimated. Congratulations came by many letters all sorry they could not come. Anne Petersen of New Jersey, Petersen family of Los Angeles, Wm. Georg Petersen of Portland and many Petersen family of San Francisco others.

M. Petersen has two cows for sale, one 2-year-old colt. Miss Florence Boydston who is a stenographer at Klamath agency has arrived home for a trip to Treasures Island, San Francisco, with her mother. Mrs. J. T. Boydston. They enjoyed the trip very much. The Oregonian, with a photo of Mr. and Mrs. M. Petersen announced their 60th wedding anniversary. A lady friend traveling all around, three times to Europe, announces the San Francisco fair 50 per cent better than the New York fair. So many valuable present and flowers were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Petersen at their wedding anniversary. Our prune dryers and hop kiln should be put under state supervision, there are too many pitfalls for the workmen its a wonder that not more workers have lost their lives. more guard rails are highly necessary.

Marjorie Lachance Scheese, working in a prune dryer, became very sick. She was brought home by Dr. Russell and taken to McMinnville hospital for treatment last week. She is at home now and recovering. James Farrington of Portland congratulated the Petersens, sorry he could not attend. The German soldiers in 1866 taught me their Lord's prayer, as follows: Our Father who lives in Berlin Your kingdom will soon have an end; Your will shall never be done, don't lead us under Your Swatica, but deliver us from the Kukubs, for you have neither power or glory, therefore depart from us forever, Amen. Man can never expect a long, healthy life, if he don't live happy every day, sing when you get up, sing when you go to bed, plant a tree, enjoy its growth and its fruits.

M. Petersen and wife are so thankful to all their friends for all their good will and well wishes we lay our heads on our pillows tonight happy and contented, our fathers and mothers are with us. We trust and glory in our union; we trust and glory in our Father in He aven; unselfishness he demands from us; love thy neighbor as thyself. M. Petersen never owned a revolver, he is afraid of nobody, never was harmed; treat the poor right. The Oregonian wants my whole life's doings. He will get it.

A modern girl was going to be vaccinated, and the doctor asked: "Shall I vaccinate where the scar won't
