$10,000,000 Cruise Ship Strikes Reef

View of the $10,000,000 luxury liner, Manhattan, fast in the grip of a sand bar or uncharted coral reef, 250 yards off West Palm Beach, Fla. The ship's 250 passengers were removed safely to shore. Inset: Having come through a thrilling experience, passengers of the Manhattan wave gaily to the cameraman while being taken ashore.

Something for Nazis to Ponder Over

At the left Winston Churchill inspects the American mechanized squadron in London. The squadron is composed of Americans from the United States. Right: A demonstration of the various methods of getting troops and vehicles across a river is given by the British royal engineers. The troops are making the crossing in collapsible boats. For bringing heavy equipment across, the boats are used as pontoons for a plank bridge.

Their Country Lost, They Fight With British

Their homeland gone, these Polish troops joined with the British forces and are now undergoing training somewhere in Scotland. Above they are seen with tanks in battle formation during maneuvers. The tanks, incidentally, are French ones, and were taken to England when the Nazi hordes over-ran France.

Mascot

Mother Goose, mascot of the Maemere stables in Miami, Fla., supervises the electric treatment of Puro Oro, three-year-old filly, whose expensive legs are learning what's watt. The goose likes the Maemere horses and the bangtails reciprocate.

IF A CHAIR is all legs, angles and curves in the wrong places, a slip cover may do as much for it as a becoming frock will do for an awkward girl. The right color, a dash of style, fabric cut to bring out graceful lines and cover defects, and presto—a new personality for the ugly duckling!

That was the treatment given a set of old chairs like the one shown here. A two-piece frock was planned to repeat tones in the wall paper of the room in which the chairs were to be used. The bold stripes of the putty tan, green and wine red material gave just the right contrast with the flowered pattern on the wall. Narrow green fringe was used for edging and

Fortunately for Passenger No Rules Were Broken

As the west-bound express train thundered through the wayside station, a door burst open and a passenger fell out. Fortunately, he landed on a heap of sand, so, though badly shaken up, he wasn't hurt much.

The train shrieked to a stop and the conductor hurried to the side of the victim.

"Hurt bad?" he inquired.

"No, I guess not," replied the man, "but what'll I do now?"

"Let me see your ticket," said the representative of the railroad. When it was produced he examined it closely, then:

"It's all right," he said. "This ticket allows for a break in the journey."

The Dark Ages

Most historians place the period of the Dark Ages between the time the western Roman empire fell in 475 A. D. and the discovery of the pandects—a systematically arranged collection of Roman laws—at Amalfi, Italy, in 1150, or a period of about seven centuries. The discovery of these laws led to a general study of Roman and Greek literature which overcame much of the intellectual darkness which had come with the barbarians who had spread over the continent from northern Europe.
