

GRAND RONDE

(By M. Petersen)

There's no place like home! From whom all blessings flow. There is only one direct road to Tillamook for defense. That is being forgotten by our highway department The Wolf Creek and Wilson roads are only for fishing and pleasure. One bomb from Hitler would throw them into eternity. They even don't open up agriculture in its course.

Mr. Beal and son of Tillamook called Friday on Petersen for sheep range. He can supply 1360 acres in one body with 3000 acres of open range on Siuslaw reservation. Silence prevents many family tragedies. Beware your temper, it may cause murder. It looks like the little nations had enough of promises by Hitler.

As a paperhanger, the customers lost faith in him. The Turk and Greek promises are mostly wind. He will scrape the butter off their bread as soon as they give him a little finger. Paul, he may be duped; he is a child, uneducated. Hitler says Paul, come let us play chess. A million souls lost is nothing. Hitler will re-enforce til they lay dead 6 feet deep, like Prince Carl did in 1864. If Hitler goes to the front, he may have to the first volley will silence him forever.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. M. Petersen had a very enjoyable time until 11 p.m. in company with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Austin and daughter Virginia. Mr. Austin is a radio electrician at the police station. Roy Buckley, wife and son Robert all played games singing old lores by Petersen from the shores of Norway. Carl Mathews and wife had a snack with an extract of hops and malt. Sure all had a good time. Dr. Tomlinson advised Petersen to go away for awhile; would improve the health of Mrs. Petersen, and all hope it will. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brady of Portland called at the Buckley residence to see Mrs. Petersen.

Our friend, Chas. Matthies, the schoolhouse builder, gave M. Petersen a pleasure trip through East Portland's flying fields on the Columbia river.
