"SELLER'S MARKET"

The following editorial, clipped from a folder issued by the American Appraisal Company, sent us by a reader in Grand Ronde and as it so faithfully reflects thinking in general today, we are reproducing it.

"Seller's Market"

"A one-time salesman, promoted now to Third Assistant Vice President in Charge of 'Customer Service,' 'Postwar Planning' or what have you, introduces a new item and a new theory in expense accounts—'Redecorating two bedrooms and bath, $210.'"

"The item appeared between a $6.84 dinner (including tax) and a $5.00 bribe to a porter for trying to steal a lower berth."

"The explanation was—I had to make the trip for the Company. The wife ordered the decorating while I was away on Company business. It would not have happened had I stayed at home. Therefore, it is the Company's fault and the Company's expense. And besides, the Government pays 80 percent of it anyway—the income tax, you know. So what?"

"It is not of record that he got away with it, nor is his technique recommended for general use. We are simply suggesting it as typical of an attitude of mind, the liquidation of which will comprise one of the most troublesome of postwar problems. It is a natural fruitage, we are told, of the present 'seller's market.' Fruitage it may be, but there is evidence here and there that it is badly tainted at the core.

"Sub-cuticle similarities between Judy O'Grady and the Colonel's lady seem to find their parallel these days in similarities between the thinking man at the bench and the white collar boys and girls comprising the overhead. In unison they sing, 'Get it while the getting is good'—the Government is paying for most of it anyway."

"Some day, in some way, someone must do the job of teaching the primer class lesson that the 'Government is US'—that whatever the Government is 'paying for anyway, V.E. are paying for anyway.' Our purpose, however, is only to point out the trouble which the present unwholesome thinking is piling up."

Timber Workers Needed

"There are more calls for choker setters, greenchainmen, car loaders, and lumber handlers than for anything else, but jobs exist also for various types of workers in rigging, yarding, trucking, and in the sawmills.

"In addition, there is also a considerable demand locally for automobile and truck mechanics; managerial, clerical, and sales workers; nut processing laborers and various other types of workers.

"Persons who are qualified and available are urged to present themselves for employment.

Editorial Comment
about
DAN HARMON
Republican Candidate for CONGRESS

Oregon Voter:

"... has political 'IT' so his candidacy against Mott can be taken seriously."

Foodburn Independent:

"Mott has an opponent in Dan Harmon."

"They made him (Harmon) president of the Newberg Chamber of Commerce, which is more than we ever heard of any community doing for Mott."

"If congress were filled with businessmen such as Harmon instead of politicians like Mott there would not now be such congressional muddles."

New Capital Press:

Headline—"Harmon will oppose Mott for Congress—Main advantage so far is growing dislike of present incumbent."

Garvald Star:

"He sounds safe... will give Mott competition..."

Newberg Graphic:

"His home town paper backs him up."

"... Dan Harmon has the background, ability, and leadership necessary to qualify him as real congressional timber."

"... We need a business man, like Harmon. His postwar program makes sense."

"... Dan's educational program for our returning service men and women is probably a kickback from his days spent on the Mississippi A. & M. campus as the son of a professor... and it will solve the problem."

Oregon City Banner-Courier:

"... This fellow Dan Harmon, Newberg, is all right. He made a success of his business (automotive), he is a smart man, and doubtless an able man."

Hillshore Argus:

"Mott Has Competition—Congressman Mott always has won by substantial majorities, but from all indications he is facing his most energetic competition in the coming primary."

Willamette Times:

"Mr. Harmon points to the 'Death March of Bataan' as the direct result of the isolationist's obstruction of the fortification of Guam and the Philippine Islands."

"No official who has been in office the past decade in the upper brackets of our government should be re-elected. As Harmon says, they are responsible for it."

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I was just tellin' my brother Fred this morning, Judge...there's never been a time in our lives when we got to live up to that old sayin' 'United we stand, divided we fall' more than we have to today."

"How true that is, Herb. And for the life of me, I can't figure out why, at a time like this, some folks insist on raising a question like prohibition. I can't imagine anything that would tickle our enemies more than to get us folks over here taking sides against each other, arguing about an issue like that. We've got a he-man's job on our hands to win this war and we can't be wasting our minds, our money and our strength fighting about something we tried for nearly 14 years and found couldn't work."

"I say there's a time and a place for everything, and this is no time or place to be doing any fightin' except the kind that's going to win the war."
