

German Road Blocks Fail to Halt Allies

The Germans spend considerable time and supplies in erecting blockades which prevent the rapid advance of the Allied armies. The blockades had little effect as noted by rapid progress being made in France. Left, is a German road block along the water front in St. Raphael, southern France. Another type of block, shown at right, was used in Paris.

Chinese Soldiers Cross Treacherous River

Chinese soldiers march to the front crossing the treacherous Salween river by means of a temporary suspension bridge. The original bridge was blown up by the Chinese as a measure against the Japanese advance. All supplies for the Chinese forces in this district have to be carried by Chinese on their backs or dropped by planes. Increased transport planes have made it possible to begin to furnish the fighting Chinese in the Salween river section with much needed weapons, food and other supplies.

Ship Loaded With Jap Death

Rows of huge shells wind along the decks of a U. S. battleship as it loads up somewhere in the Pacific preparatory to carrying out its assignment of blasting Jap holdings. The inferno loosed by its guns cleared a path for the landing forces, which were then able to send a landing party ashore to capture the base.
