GRAND RONDE — An overflow crowd at the Grand Ronde Grade School witnessed a very enjoyable and interesting program on Friday night, Dec. 19. There were not enough seats on the Gym floor to accommodate the many people who attended and the basketball gallery was put in use.

The show lasted about an hour and a half and the various grades kept the crowd well amused. The songs were well chosen and the skits well acted by the younger children. The show ended with a Christmas play by the 8th Grade students.

Santa Claus visited the Grand Ronde Mercantile on the afternoons of Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and the children were given free candy by the management.

Eugene Davis was treated at the Grand Ronde First Aid Station on Friday afternoon for shock and multiple laceration of the scalp and taken by ambulance to the McMinnville Hospital for further treatment. Davis is a croaker-setter for the Ted Welty Logging Co.

Agency News

By Mrs. John Smith

Mr. Earl Wooldridge of Chemawa was in the Agency Monday. He will meet with the business committee on Monday evening, Dec. 29.

The program of Dist. 91 was held at the government building last week and was enjoyed by many from the Agency and Cloverleaf.

Funeral services for Harvey Durhame were held at the Catholic church with many people attending.

Harvey La Chance of Astoria came for his mother and father and took them to Astoria for a visit.

This community is saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Harvey Mauldin last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith went to Portland on business Monday. Mrs. Mark Jones was shopping in McMinnville Monday.

Mr. David La Chance of McMinnville called on his father Pros La Chance and aunt Cino Nelson and brought them presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jewel went to Chemawa to see their son and took him shopping.

IS OUR FACE RED?

A couple of lines dropped out of the story in last week's Times regarding Kiwanis Club meetings. Consequently, the first two lines must have proved quite a shock for the townspeople who read that the Kiwanians would hold their "January evening meeting at the noon luncheon, Tuesday."

Nope! the boys haven't speeded up that much. It was our boner.
