

Agency Group Plans Affair to Honor New Arrivals From Europe

Mrs. John Smith

AGENCY—The Catholic Women's club held their regular monthly meeting Thursday.

A pot luck luncheon was served and they appointed a committee to take care of the booth at the rodeo.

They also planned a miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Der Zee and family, who have recently arrived here from Holland.

The family is working for Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Werth and are living at Valley Junction.

Each lady will also bring a gift for Mrs. Theo. Houck, in appreciation for her help toward the Catholic Sisters this past school term.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Yoder and children went to Forest Grove Sunday, to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gaston and children of Empire, were in the Agency Sunday, visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mark Jones is confined to her bed with the flu since her return from Portland, where she spent a few days shopping and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Brooks went to Grays River, Wash. to close the deal on their place. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mercier accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Petite were dinner guests of friends in Dolph.
