

Wedding Bells

Cindy Newton-David Heida

Miss Cindy Newton and David Heida were united in marriage on November 10 at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Newton in Sheridan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Newton of McMinnville and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Heida of McMinnville.

The Reverend Richard Halstead performed the afternoon rites.

The bride wore a cream colored gown of embossed satin, with a wreath of flowers for a headpiece. Her grandmother, Mrs. John Fisher of Willamina made the gown.

Mrs. Lowell Pearson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor; and Lowell

Pearson stood as best man for Mr. Heida. Pam Johnson sang, accompanying herself on the guitar.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Michael Fisher and Miss Ann Heida cut the cake, which was baked by Mrs. Leonard Morse of Newberg. Assisting with refreshments were Mrs. Andy Menefee, Mrs. Adrian DeLay, and Mrs. Perry Newton.

Miss Debbie Fisher was in charge of the guest book and Miss Julie Newton, sister of the bride, received the gifts.

After a wedding trip to California and Mexico, the couple will be at home in McMinnville.

Pastor's Corner

The inspired record of the Word of God begins, "In the beginning God..." It begins with an absolute fact and then goes on in the next 66 books to prove what a tremendous fact the reality of God is.

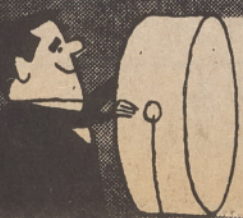

But it does more than this. As the Old Testament prophecies of the past merge into their fulfillment in the New Testament, a picture of God is revealed, a portrait so immense, so powerful, so lovely that the soul of man can scarcely take it in.

There is the presence of the supernatural. God again and again has intervened in man's spiritual and social development to show Himself alive and concerned about his world.

The universe with its design and purpose, with its intricacy and detail, its vastness and complexity proves that there is a great Designer Who can be none other than God Himself.

Man with his desire for God (and every man does desire Him), with his picture and idea of perfection, with his creativity and conscience, with his moral inward law, his conscience and his assurance of final judgement proves again the truth and reality of our one God, our Lord.

But these only point the direction. There is another, a greater, a special revelation of God's reality and love. It is in the person of Jesus Christ. We may skip merrily on our way and ignore the abundant proof around us of our God and His care. But the cross will suddenly arrest us. No man can run from the cross. It stands on the horizon of every soul. It is our moment of truth. Paul the Apostle came to the place that he could "glory in the cross." For it had done what nothing else could do. It had shown him divine love; it had calmed his spirit and it had given him joy, contentment and peace of mind.
