Warren D. Combs

Evangelist holds meetings through 25th

Evangelist and Mrs. Warren D. Combs of Nampa, Idaho will begin a special revival crusade this Tuesday, February 20 at the Assembly of God Church, Vernonia, states Pastor Jimmy Glenn.

Services will continue nightly at 7:30 (except Saturday) for one week only through Sunday, February 25.

Rev. Combs has travelled in 19 countries on the world and preached also in 32 states. He will show color slides of revival in Alaska during the crusade here on Friday night. The Combs' will also render marimba and trumpet solos and duets.

Rev. Combs has pastored 24 years in three churches in Washington and Idaho. During his 14 years he pastored in Nampa, Idaho, a new $225,000. church was built in 1971. He resigned two years later, leaving it with only $9,000 indebtedness.

He has authored two books, his second book, Pentecostal Catechism, is a survey of the church's beliefs on major Bible Doctrines. He is also listed in "Who's Who in America" in Religion.

He served 10 years as Assistant Superintendent of his denomination's churches in Idaho; was a member of the National Prestyery Board of his denomination, Springfield, Missouri for 10 years; has had 16 years of daily and Sunday radio ministry; served as both a Camp Meeting Bible Teacher and Evangelist.

A free gift will be given to everyone present in the Sunday School Rally, February 25 at 9:45 a.m. For free transportation to any of these services, phone the church parsonage, 429-6353.

Pastor Glenn extends a cordial invitation to those of this area to attend these old-time gospel services.

Correction

In reporting on the circulation of Dr. Bacchiochi's book, From Sabbath to Sunday, I mentioned that he had graduated in 1977. This is incorrect. Bacchiochi defended his dissertation in the summer of 1974. The Gregorian University Press published his book in English in 1977.
