SUDDEN RICHES—Marge Morishige out bowled 1,910 other contestants between March and June of this year to become the Division "A" champ of the Oregon State Womens Bowling Association and won over $330 in the process. Marge, seen here being presented with her award by Kathleen Madsen, District One Director for the OSWBA says that although she doesn't know what she'll spend the money on, she's sure she'll find something. Although a bowler for the last twenty years, Marge says she only bowls once a week. Talent will tell.

visited friends here recently.

For two years Russ has been stationed at the Naval Air Station at Alameda, California and is an electrical and electronic maintenance man.

Along with the regular assigned work, Russ has been taking some college credited courses and has kept himself trim and fit with participation in basketball, track, racket ball and his latest venture, boxing. Says Russ, "You got to keep fit down there with all the competition."

Russ came to Portland to attend the EUB summer camp at Jennings Lodge and regrets he couldn't see all of those he wanted to while here.

Last Friday August 15, Ida and Dan Richards went out to celebrate Dan's 92

Ladies Golf

by Ruth Nogle

Edna Hailey walked off with the honors at the Tuesday night golf match. It was "Poker" score match for the thirteen ladies who turned out for their regular play at the Vernonia Golf and Country Club.

The Ladies Golf Club consists of thirty-three to thirty-five ladies coming from around the Vernonia area and as far away as Beaverton and Jewell. Tuesday night meetings and play start in May and run through September. Lady guests are welcome to come join the fun. Carol Bodenheimer, President, presided over the short business meeting held after the golf match.

Obituaries

Last Sunday morning on the day of the pioneer picnic, one of Vernonia's older pioneers passed away. Lee "Buster" Rodgers died August 17, and his funeral was held yesterday at Vernonia Pioneer cemetery, August 20 at 1:30 pm. Buster was much ingrained into local history and a full obituary will come on him next week. Buster was interviewed in Freedom for "Nehalem Valley People" in the December 27, 1978 issue.

birthday at Jayne's Delights. The Richards have lived in Vernonia for 50 years and Dan was born at Bear Lake, Idaho in a covered wagon.

The Richards were joined by longtime friends the Pete Klein family. With Pete and Violet Klein were Larry and Judy Klein and their children Larry Jr. and Kimberly also Paul and Julie Ramsey with their children Derek, Steven and Corrie.

New Folks

Babs and Don Holmes of Keasey Rt. announce the birth of a son, Mason Wright Holmes on August 16 at 12:52 am at the family home. The birth was attended by local mid-wife Mary Self. Also present was the grandmother Margaret Wright of Denver, CO.

Mason Wright weighed 7 lbs even and joins sister Jenna and brothers Chris and David. Other grandparents are Charles Wright of Denver and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Holmes Sr. of New York.

Notes On Folks

Patty Fetherston, (Mrs. Allen Fetherston of San Diego, CA) and her children Alina and Jonathan were recent dinner guests at the home of Ruth Steers, Patty's grandmother. Mrs. Fetherston was staying in Forest Grove with other relatives and was in the area to attend the wedding of her brother Mike Schamp of Hillsboro.

Last week Mrs. Steers had her sister-in-law, Emma Kuehn as her house guest, Emma had been visiting other relatives in Canada and Alaska and was on her way home to Chula Vista, CA.
