JEWELL NEWS

Quilt blocks ready for Nehalem Valley Folk Art Festival

by Ruth Nogle

Mrs. Sandi Whiteman now has the quilt blocks ready for anyone who would like to take some to complete for the Nehalem Valley Folk Art Festival quilt. You can reach her at 755-2723.

Come on singers, more voices are needed for the group forming on Thursday evenings at the Jewell School, at 7 pm. A piano player is also needed. You don't need to be a professional singer to join the group, you just need a love of singing, so come lift your voice in song.

The Nehalem Valley Community Church invites all ladies to come join their Bible Study class. The group meets every Thursday morning at 10:30 am at the church.

A three day convention was enjoyed last week by the pastor of the Nehalem Valley Community Church and his wife. Rev. Richard Casad and wife Sandi drove to Sequim, Washington to attend a seminar of Independent Fundamental Churches of America. Over 200 pastors and wives attended the retreat and enjoyed the speakers presented for both the ladies and gentlemen. A delicious Indian Salmon bake was served the group on their first evening at the convention.

Jewell schools will be on spring vacation the week of March 16.

The Senior Citizens pot-luck luncheon will be held Friday, March 13. The meal will be served at 12 noon with the afternoon spent in cards, bingo or visiting. If you are 55 or older, come bring your friends and pot-luck and meet friends and enjoy the afternoon. Do you have a favorite card game? Come share it with others.

MAIKEN TO HEAD PROGRAM

The Nehalem Valley chapter of the Izaak Walton League cordially invites the public to attend their next meeting on Thursday night March 19, at 7:30 pm.

At that time Harold Maiken, president, will present a program (45 min.) including movies on "hard-hat" deep sea diving.

Harold, a former diver with over 30 years experience, now residing on Keasy Route, promises an entertaining and informative program.

Meetings are held at West Oregon Co-op building on the third Thursday of each month and every one is welcome.

Study Club takes "armchair tour"

The Vernonia Study Club met in regular session March 5 at the home of Mrs. Dee Hershey. Following the club's theme "Landmarks" Mrs. J.W. Nichols gave the program taking her listeners on an arm chair tour of "The Castle" in Clatskanie. This old house, built in 1898, was the dream home of Thomas J. Flippin who came to Clatskanie at the age of seventeen. He went to work logging, prospered, married and built his castle with its turrets, ornate fireplaces and many other interesting features.

The Clatskanie Senior Citizens are buying it to make it their senior center. The lower level serves as a nutrition site. The upper floors are available for weddings and receptions. Regular and special tours are conducted. This old home has recognition as an historical site by both the state of Oregon and the federal government.

Nogle's announce wedding

Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Nogle, Jewell, announce the engagement of their granddaughter, Miss Kimberlee Kaye Cooper, of San Diego, California to Mr. Cory Gene Ransom, Visa, California.

Miss Cooper is the daughter of Mrs. Kellie Cooper, Honolulu, Hawaii and Richard L. Cooper, Portland and is now living at the home of her grandparents. Mr. Ransom is the son of Mrs. Mary Ransom, Escondido, California.

Miss Kim is a 1976 graduate of the Jewell Grade School and graduated from Clairmont High School, San Diego in 1980. Her fiancé attended Valley High in Escondido.

A summer wedding is planned.
