

STEVE WHITEMAN CONST.

has helped dozens of families in the past two years with their building needs—so let's get acquainted...

We are a group of local carpenters and builders, skilled in all aspects of construction. We specialize in:

NEW CONSTRUCTION HOME REMODELING FRAMING
CONCRETE CONSTRUCTION INTERIOR FINISHING
FARM CONSTRUCTION HOME MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR
BATHROOMS KITCHENS

We have over 1800 sq. ft. of building materials and shop space near Jewell, which means YOU SAVE MONEY - here's how:

1. Materials are purchased and stocked in volume, the savings are passed on to you, for example: 1/2" SHEET ROCK $3.00 PER SHT (AS USED ON THE JOB.) 1/2" SHEATHING $7.49

REMEMBER - we are LOCAL, which means you do not pay excessive travel time or wages when compared with other builders. All work is guaranteed, of course.

Country stroll against cancer

Come walk with us for a leisurely five miles from town out Keasey Route to the home of Carolyn Keasey. Have fun, improve your health and help us conquer cancer in your lifetime. Collect pledges from friends, relatives, etc. and meet in parking lot behind high school at 9 am on July 10. Bring a sack lunch of sandwich, fruit and dessert. Walk as far as you can. Transportation will be furnished if you cannot go the distance. For more information call Louise at 429-7401 or Carolyn at 429-2021.

United Way budget hearings scheduled

The board of directors for United Way of Columbia County will be holding the budget hearings on July 13, 14 & 15, starting at 6 pm at the St. Helens Chamber of Commerce building. The agencies receiving United Way of Columbia County funds are scheduled to present their budget requests and justifications at this time.

There are 16 agencies who serve the people of Columbia County now receiving funds from United Way of Columbia County. Any agency that is interested in becoming an agency member of United Way of Columbia County should request membership by contacting United Way of Columbia County, P.O. Box 855, St. Helens, Oregon 97051.

The board of directors will hold a meeting on the evening of July 15 to vote on agency membership applications, budget goal, and allocations for the 1982 campaign, and to present a time schedule for the fall campaign.

Mother of the Year

by Mary Lou Busch

The Mother of Twins Club "Pair-A-Tykes" from Portland sponsored one of our members for the Oregon Mother of the Year and she won. Mabel Bodle, Mother of the Year of Oregon will be in the Jamboree Parade this year with our club and our twins.

Everett & Sandstrom exchange vows

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday, June 17, 1981 at 2:30 pm at the First Christian Church of Vernonia by Mary Everett and Robert Sandstrom.

Bob's twin brother Dick, and his wife Betty stood up for the couple.

A champagne dinner reception was given by Mary's four children: Lonna Holmstedt of Norco, Calif.; Deanna Matthews of Vernonia, Or.; Carol Liln of Gresham, Ore.; and Gary Everett of Vernonia, Or.

The reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Clatskanie.

Bob's sister-in-law, Betty, made all the flower arrangements in the church and hall.

The happy couple will honeymoon in Hawaii and California in August. They will then return home to their farm in Vernonia.

Foursquare Happenings

by Sandy Welch

Vernonia Foursquare Church has been chosen for the Northwest premier showing of Foursquare's newly released film "One Shall Become a Thousand". This film is based upon the life story of some of Foursquare's own missionaries in South America. This will be the first time this movie has ever been shown in the northwest district and promises to be an interesting and exciting movie. It will be shown Sunday, June 28, during the 11 am service.

Sunday evening at the 6 pm service

LADIES GOLF

Nine ladies played a game of Poker Golf Tuesday night. Vesta King came in first and Glenda Alford came in second.

the church will host Carroll and Wilma Clason from the World Missions for Jesus.

You are cordially invited to join either or both of the services.
