NOTICES

PERSONALS 10

MOM— Guess who's walking! She just holds onto one of our fingers in each hand and away she goes. Saturday when we tried walking she took her usual two steps and then crawled the rest of the way. On Sunday, after her birthday party, we tried again, she went all the way across the living room. And then from the bedroom to the living room and on into the kitchen. I suppose one day soon she'll let go of my hands and then I will find out about what all these other mothers have been warning me about. You should see her face, she's so proud of what she's doing, and so are we. Cori's party was a lot of fun. She particularly seemed to enjoy the phone to call to you for her Happy Birthday song. She liked her cake but not the frosting. Also, she's finally learned how to pet and not pull, and she and the cat are now friends. Only 22 days to go. A..
