

VHS Shakespeare Festival scheduled

Vernonia High School will host a team of actors from the Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland on November 13 as part of the Festival's eleventh annual School Visit Program. Faculty member, Kathleen Sevig arranged for the visit.

Dennis Smith and Dan Mayes, one of nine teams touring schools throughout the Pacific Northwest, will present dramatic programs focusing on Shakespeare to students in classrooms and school assemblies. The visit is one of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival's audience development projects and part of its education program. It is funded in part by grants from the S.S. Johnson Foundation and Boise Cascade Corporation.

The high school assembly will be held at 9 am in the VHS gym, the grade school assembly at 10:30 in the WGS gym. The public is invited to attend.

State opens Col Co highway project bids

Two Oregon Department of Transportation project bids are scheduled for Columbia County. Bids on both of these jobs must be received by the Transportation Commission by Thursday, November 19.

The first project involves the installation of state furnished traffic signals on the Columbia River Highway at Gable Road and St. Helens Commercial Center in St. Helens. Completion time is set at 90 days.

The second project calls for replacing a flashing beacon installation with a five phase traffic signal installation, including pedestrian signals, on the Columbia River Highway at West Rainier Dike Road Section near Rainier. Completion time is 90 calendar days.

Firewood can hide insects

People who bring firewood into their homes for use in fireplaces or woodstoves may unknowingly be opening their doors to a variety of insect pests.

Many species of insects overwinter in the bark of tree trunks and limbs that may be cut up for firewood. If the firewood is stored in a garage or house, the insects in the bark respond to the warmer indoor temperatures and become active.

Types of insects that often shelter in wood bark are yellow jackets, Bark beetles, ant termites, wood wasps and carpenter ants.

"Most insects that invade homes are more of a nuisance than anything else," says Chip Bubl, Columbia County Extension agent. "However, one pest that can be a problem in homes is the carpenter ant."

Carpenter ants like to make their nests in any soft material such as certain types of wood or insulation. If these pests are brought indoors on firewood that is left unused in the house for a few weeks, carpenter ant infestations may result.

Ridge Riders

welcome new members

The Vernonia Ridge Riders monthly meeting was called to order on October 29 by Dale Brunk with 11 members present. Two new members, Nadine Kasparian and Barbara McDonald, were welcomed into the club during the evening's agenda.

A Trail Ride, set to begin at 10 am on November 14 and led by John Siedelman, is scheduled to leave from Anderson Park if weather permits. Please bring a sack lunch.

For more information please call 429-7021.
