

Always popular, this year's quilt fair was enjoyed by many visitors from both the local area and out-of-town. A fine display of handcraft in the form of applique, piece-work, and other quilting methods was viewed.

FISHHAWK LAKE

Ron and Betty Leigh have bought the Gililand home at the lake. They will be permanent residents.

Lola Watson died Sunday October 3. The funeral service was held at Mist Community Church Wednesday, October 6 at 2 p.m. with Rev. Sulo Sanders officiating.

Committal services were held at Fishhawk cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lansing, John Jacobs, Mrs. Frank Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellingham, E.J. Johnson, Mrs. Bob DuPuis, and Mrs. Lloyd Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Tornblad, Mr. and Mrs. Shalman Libel, were among those attending the services.

Casket bearers were George Jacobs, Joe Ashton, Ted Hiatt, Howard Breen, Floyd Shaw, Jess Tito.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Willie have returned from Spokane.

ED BALLA FOR COUNCILMAN

I WILL SPEAK WITHOUT HESITATION FOR THE PEOPLES RIGHTS AND TELL IT LIKE IT IS.

Pd. Pol. Ad-Committee To Elect,
1890 Mist Dr. Vernonia, Ore.

JC'S SLATE LAND USE SURVEY

The Vernonia Jaycees agreed to conduct a land-use survey for the Vernonia Planning Commission at their regular meeting September 21.

The purpose of the survey is to provide the Planning Commission and its consultant with current information on the distribution and intensity of various land uses in Vernonia.

John Hager, Jaycee treasurer, is the survey chairman and anyone wishing to assist the survey can contact him at 429-2311, days, or 429-6765 evenings.

WE CLEANED OUT
THE PLACE

With a Want Ad

Sears

Will Hold A
PRE-CHRISTMAS SALE.

Free Gifts
Door Prizes
Fun For Everyone

DOT LYONS

429 8172

AUTHORIZED CATALOG SALES MERCHANT