

JUST THINKING

Colder nights and darker mornings would indicate that summer is gone for good—just when we were starting to enjoy it. But the end of summer means the beginning of meetings for another year. And in keeping with the trend, we have revived the Dates to Remember column. If your club or organization would like to be included just call 429-4201 Mondays or Saturdays, 11 a.m.-5 p.m.

How do you like your local sports? Looks like the mighty Loggers, male and female, are doing pretty good. We hope you like the sports section of the paper. Check out the names at the bottom of the sports page. Those are the sponsors who are helping to provide this news for you. The next time you go shopping, don't forget them.

Saturday will be a big day in Vernonia as the annual meeting of West Oregon Electric Co-op gets underway. Registration starts at 9 a.m. with the meet set to begin at 10 a.m. There will be reports, door prizes and a delicious barbequed chicken dinner with all the trimmings, served courtesy of the co-op. This is always an enjoyable time when old friends get a chance to meet again and visit as well as tend to the business of the co-op.

If you look carefully you will notice on the right hand corner of this page a thing called "statement of ownership" which we must publish according to federal law. Please note. Thanks to you wonderful people our subscriptions in county have gone up 2½ times what they were when we started a little over a year ago and the out-of-county response is even better in proportion. After all, they don't even live here. Thanks all of you. Subscribers are what draws advertisers—and we couldn't exist without all of you and them, too.

Hey, my son tells me to remind you: Don't miss Friday night's game at VHS field against Gaston. Both teams have a 3-0 league record so there should be plenty of action.

Vernonia Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lampton of Riverbank, California spent a month in the John Kudrna home while they were on vacation. The Lamptons are looking for a place in this vicinity, hoping to move here.

Rev. and Mrs. Jim Smith and family of Portland spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.J. Dickey. Rev. Smith gave the morning message at the Bible Church.

Visiting at the James Gamroths' home this past weekend was their son, Leroy Gamroth of Spokane. He also visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gamroth, and his sister Karen, and nephew J.W., all of Vernonia.
