DECEMBER 26, 1978

Karen Nyman joined the staff as Tribal bookkeeper. Karen's home is in Roseburg, Oregon. Since joining the staff she has moved to Siletz.

There was no General Meeting in the month of January, due to the cold weather and severe road conditions.

JANUARY 8, 1979

Marlin Riemer came to the Tribal Office as acting Superintendent from Jan. 8 thru February 9, 1979. He is currently an education specialist at the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. Prior to that he was a teacher at Chemawa Indian School for 8 years. He is married with one child at home. His family did not join him here.

George Davis, Programs Officer for the Colville Agency at Nespelem, Washington, has now replaced Mr. Riemer at the Siletz office. Mr. Davis has worked at the Colville Agency for 8 years. He is married and has one child at home.

JANUARY 12, 1979

Indirect cost auditors were at the Tribal office for two days to develop an indirect percentage rate for the Tribal Program funds.
