

Career Day At OSU

5th Oregon Career Awareness Workshop for American Indian/Alaskan Native High School Students

To be held at the LaSalle Center, Oregon State University
(OSU campus — next to Parker Stadium)
January 16th (Wednesday) and January 17th (1/2 day for those students who stay over.) Dormitory rooms provided.
For registration information contact your JOM program
(Siletz, Springfield, and Salem)

WORKSHOPS

Student Workshops

Financial Aid and College Admissions
Is There Life After High School?
Where Do I Turn To If I Don't Go To College?
How To Succeed In Class
Dealing With Teen Relations
Job Interviewing Skills: Looking For A Job
Developing Your Dreams
What About The Future?

Informational

Apprenticeship and Training Programs
What Community Colleges Have To Offer
Getting Around Entrance Requirements
Health Career Opportunities
College Offerings (2 year & 4 year programs)
Education and Teacher Training
Art and Making a Living With Your Talents
Science and Math Related Careers
Law and Preparation
Journalism and Communications
plus many, many more sessions and topics

CAREER DAY POW WOW

Wednesday, January 16th at 7-10 p.m.
Oregon State University Memorial Union Ballroom

Bring your regalia and join us for an evening of fun

Sponsored by:
Native American Student Assoc.
Oregon Indian Education Assoc.
Educational Opportunities Program

COMPOSITION CONTEST

A student composition contest will be held during the fair, also. Students can bring their compositions the day of the fair.

1. The theme of the composition is "Honor Your Past: Develop Your Dreams.
2. Compositions should be no more more than 1500 words long.
3. Content will be judged, as well as grammar and spelling.
4. All entries should be typed or neatly written.
5. Cash awards will be presented at the dinner on January 16th.

ART SHOW CONTEST

A student art show and contest will be held the day of the career fair. All students are encouraged to bring art work to the show.

1. Artwork should be turned in by 1:00, January 16, at the La Salle Center.
2. Traditional (beadwork, leathercrafts, etc.) and contemporary (paintings, drawings, etc.) will be the two categories.
3. Judging will be done the same afternoon.
4. Cash awards for both categories will be presented at dinner, Jan. 16.

COLLEGE REP'S AND DISPLAYS:

Oregon State University
Eastern Oregon State College
Chemeketa Community College
Portland State University
University of Oregon
Lane Community College
University California — Berkeley

HOSTS:

Oregon State University — E.O.P.
Oregon Indian Education Association
Title IV Programs: Eugene,
Portland, Springfield
JOM Programs: Salem, Siletz
& Springfield

OSU: NASA