COREY KLINE WINS AGAIN!!!

Once again Corey Kline, our 7th Grade Chess Wiz Kid, has proved his prowess at chess.

Corey who attends Siletz Middle School, is part of a chess team coached by handicapped learner specialist, Bill Barrese. After winning the regional matches February 3 at Yaquina View School in Newport, Corey and five other students from Siletz School were set to go on to the State Finals in Portland.

The Chess tournament began on Friday, March 9, at the World Forestry Center in Portland and lasted for 2 days. The first day a team of four students, including Norman Williams, Heather Schones, Mike Bisel and Jeff DeBusk, 3rd through 6th grade students, participated. Overall the Siletz team, which is in its first year, placed 13th out of 32 teams at State.

On Saturday, March 10, Corey and his teammate Mark Ross competed in the Chess Tournament in the individual category.

Each round lasted for 1 hour and 45 minutes. Corey stated that he played 5 rounds, which calculates out to 8 hours and 45 minutes in playing time. He won four of his five matches. Corey placed 3rd in the State and received a nice trophy.

CONGRATULATIONS!!
