

SILETZ TRIBAL HEAD START NEWS

BEVERLY YOUNGMAN
HEALTH CLINIC
ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Beverly Youngman, Tribal Member, recently began working as the Administrative Officer for the Siletz Community Health Clinic which is scheduled to open soon.

As Administrative Officer for the Clinic, Beverly's responsibilities include procurement of equipment and supplies, program planning, financial management, public relations and once the Clinic opens day to day operations.

Beverly believes that the Health Clinic is a great achievement of the Tribal Council and staff, representing a solid commitment to enhancing the health and well-being of our Tribal Members.

A recent graduate of Oregon State University, Bev is a member of the Tribal Education Committee, American Indians In Science and Engineering Society, and the Siletz Nation drum group.

She is happy about being able to return home and work in a capacity which provides services to Indian people. Bev enjoys reading, walking and fishing-"with limited success"!

DORENE JAY CONTRACT HEALTH CLERK

Tribal Member Dorene Jay was hired as the Contract Health Clerk on October 1, 1990.

Dorene, her husband D.J., and their two children, Robbie and Karli, live in Toledo. Her husband, D.J., fishes off the Alaskan coast.

She has been a homemaker the past several years but previously has worked for the Lincoln County School District as a Data Processor.

Dorene says she enjoys the friendly atmosphere that she has become part of in Contract Health.

Siletz Tribal Head Start began it's seventh year of classroom services on October 3, 1990. The twenty 3 & 4 year olds attend class five days per week, 9:30-1:00 at a classroom located in Siletz School. Mandy Sorensen, the new Teacher/Family Services Provider, is a recent graduate of Oregon State University with a degree and certification in Elementary Education. Mandy is very energetic and brings a wealth of creative new ideas and methods to the classroom. Lei Lani Rilatos returns for a second year as Assistant Teacher/Bus Driver. With Lani's Head Start experience and Mandy's Education background and experience, we can look forward to an exciting school year.

The Department of Health and Human Services, Head Start Bureau, American Indian Program Branch has awarded the Siletz Tribe expansion funds for Head Start services in the Springfield Community. Negotiations for classroom space in the Springfield School District are in progress. Recruitment to enroll twenty 3-4 year olds is scheduled to begin soon.
