A Dad's Greatest Job

I may never be as clever as my neighbor down the street;
I may never be as wealthy as some other men I meet;
I may never have the glory that some other men have had,
But I've got to be successful as a little fellow's Dad.
There are things I would accomplish ere my working time is through,
But the task my heart is set on is to guide a little lad
And make myself successful as that little fellow's Dad.
I may never come to glory;
I may never gather gold;
Men may count me as a failure when my business life is told,
But if he who follows after shall be manly, I'll be glad--- For I'll know I've been successful as a little fellow's Dad.
It's the one job that I dream of;
It's the task I think of most.
If I fail that growing youngster,
I'd have nothing else to boast,
For though wealth and fame I'd gather,
All my future would be sad
If I failed to be successful as that little fellow's Dad.

Thank you to Weston & Darold for teaching me how to cook Pizza!

THANK YOU

My name is Reggie M. Butler Jr. I'm writing this letter to thank the many people for their love and support that they have given me this past year. I have been clean and sober for a little over a year now and have had the opportunity to graduate from Trend College, majoring in business management. The experience has helped me grow and learn more about myself. The support that I have received during the year has given me the strength to remain on the red road. If I was to write about all the people that have given me support and love, I would be writing about 10 books at least! So, writing this letter is the best way to say thank you so very much. Without each and everyone of you I would not have made it this far. I hope to have many more years and, with the support I received, I know I will have those to be clean and sober. I would like to especially thank my family for all the love and support, and my cousin, Sonya Moody-Jurado, and her family for letting me stay in their home while I was attending school, and to Bob Tom for making arrangements so I could take a break from school, and also to Jess Guardipee for being my counselor while in Salem. Thank you all again.

Reggie M. Butler Jr.
