Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians

PO Box 549, Siletz,

Oregon 97380 (1-800-922-1399) July 1995, Volume 13, Number 1

4th of July, early 1900's

Come and become part of our "Circle of Friendship" at The Confederated Tribes of Siletz annual Pow Wow, Nesika Illahee, which will be held August 11-13 on Government Hill in Siletz where we honor the traditions of our ancestors. Seasoned Pow Wow veterans look forward to this event each August. For those of you who are new to the Pow Wow circuit, this is a must. This cultural event is guaranteed to be the highlight of your summer.

The beat of the drum welcomes all who attend. Be on guard, it's infectious and you will find your heart keeping time to the ancient rhythm of our Native Ancestors.

Friday evening the festivities begin with the crowning of the Siletz Royalty and Grand Entry at 7:00 p.m. Saturday there will be a parade through downtown Siletz beginning at 11:00 a.m. Two Grand Entries take place on Saturday, one at 1:00 and another at 7:00 p.m. Sunday Grand Entry will be at 12:00 noon. The Salmon feast will be held Sunday afternoon and you can eat well for a minimal fee. There is no charge to attend the Pow Wow which features competition dancing both Saturday and Sunday. Shuttle busses run from downtown Siletz to Government hill every 15 minutes. No alcohol and drugs are permitted on the Pow Wow grounds. Vendors are in abundance featuring Native American arts and crafts as well as some of the best food you've ever tasted.

For information call 1-800-922-1399. Stop by and join the celebration!
