

(Continued from page 9)

in this column, but your reporter hasn't had the time, the opportunity, nor the means to contact the sources of information needed to get these stories. Why not write to the secretary or the president when some interesting sidelight bobs up so we can record some of the interesting doings of our members. Everyday happenings that might interest our mutual friends.

DON'T FORGET—COME TO THE PICNIC—PARADISE PARK—11 A.M. TO 11 P.M.—SUNDAY, JULY 16th.

CHAPTER No. 2—ROSEBURG

The last meeting of June 9th, enjoyed full attendance. Many topics were discussed and debated upon. The Chapter voted to carry as a paid-up member, any member of the Chapter while sick or injured.

Plans are under way for holding an annual picnic soon.

Considering the amount of correspondence received from headquarters and various other Chapters, we are glad to note that we have a working organization.

CHAPTER No. 3—BEND

Not only the members of this Chapter but all other members of the State Highway Department of Oregon have learned with regret and sorrow of the accident that claimed the lives of three members of Oiling Crew No. 4. After doing a good job on the Klamath Falls-Lakeview Highway, June 6, these men lost their lives when an automobile in which they were riding overturned on a soft shoulder. Harvey Denham, another occupant of the car escaped with injuries. The dead are Oscar Lucas, driver of the car; Ralph Turner and William Reed. The accident was quite a shock to the Brothers crew as two sons of Mr. Oscar Lucas are employed on that crew. They are Forrest F. Lucas and Owen T. Lucas. Mrs. Oscar Lucas has taken up residence with her two sons at Brothers.

CHAPTER NEWS

Wedding Bells—Wedding Bells—Wedding Bells. Ken Lathim takes fatal leap. The confirmed Bachelors Club met in extraordinary session on the afternoon of May 28, 1944 and quickly by unanimous vote permanently expelled Ken Lathim from the roster of its members. It was pointed out at the meeting that Ken had just married Nora Dobbs and was, at the moment, leaving Prineville on a honeymoon.

Seriously, all of their many friends wish them all the happiness in the world.

Charley Clifton says that riding herd on an oil crew has become such a snap that he did not know what to do with his idle moments so he and Mrs. Clifton bought a confectionery in Redmond. Make mine root beer Charley.

When Harry Melton left Linn Koon's district he brought most of Linn's equipment and help, which is as it should be, but why he brought the weather too is the $64 question. It has rained every other day since he has been here.

Art DeJoode claims a record—he hired a lad of 80 the other day—who can beat that?

Cap Seeley reports that The Dalles Chapter is in the throes of their annual election of officers with no one running for a fourth term. Cap has been doing some research work on the

(Continued on page 19)