

OBITUARY

LLOYD R. SMITH

Death came to Lloyd R. Smith, State Corporations Commissioner, Monday night, June 6, 1944, during his sleep at his home in Portland. His physician ascribed death to acute heart disease. He was born in Portland, October 29, 1881.

"All Oregon joins in sympathy to the bereaved family in the loss of a loving and understanding husband and father, a true public servant and loyal friend."

* * *

BELCHER

George E. Belcher passed away at his home in Salem May 31, 1944, after a short illness.

In the passing of Mr. Belcher the Oregon State Employees Association lost an ardent supporter and a loyal friend and his loss will be keenly felt.

George E. Belcher was born in Canton, Kansas, on Dec. 8, 1896

Mr. Belcher married Hariott Luke Dec. 31, 1940, who also survives him.

George's many friends and state employees wish to express to Mrs. Belcher their deepest sympathy in her bereavement.

PERRY

A. C. F. Perry, 61, Oregon assistant state engineer, died May 21 at Salem. He was born in Short Hill, N. J., and was graduated from Columbia University School of Engineering.

Mr. Perry's enviable record of 24 years of loyal and devoted service to the State of Oregon, to its people and their interest is one of which his family and children may well be proud.

Western Auto Supply

Tires - Tubes - Parts

La Grande, Oregon

SINCE 1851 . . .

The Oregon Statesman

has reported state capital news, following the capital from Oregon City to Salem to Corvallis to Salem.

It still is reporting the news—all of it—fresh with your morning coffee.

PHONE 9101 FOR A START

Our Boys Are Doing Their Part Are You Doing Yours?

Now that the chips are down . . . now that our men are writing decisive history with their blood . . . There can be no halfway measures for us.

They, in the front lines, are throwing in everything they have.
We, behind the lines, must do the same.

There are two ways in which we can best accomplish this. The Oregon State Employees Association urges you to

Buy More Bonds and Donate to Your Blood Bank

(Investigate the Payroll Allotment Plan)

(Call your nearest Red Cross Representative)