

SERVICE NEWS

(Continued from page 8)

a much higher type of native population.

Lt. (j.g.) Ray Webber, Seabees, is in an administrative office in Hawaii.

C. H. Maison, Chief Store Keeper, Seabees, is stationed in American Samoa. He says, "These islands may be OK for the natives, but give me Oregon."

Olaf G. Frasen is in the Hawaiian Islands. He wishes to change location. Wants to go oiling.

John A. Howry is in Ireland. He is anxious to see the war end, so that he can return home.

John Kergil is in England, or was before the Big Drive. He reports that the English girls are very sociable.

William Grabenhorst is in Camp Parks, California, for advanced training.

Rex A. Grabenhorst is stationed at Midway.

Lt. Lewis B. Melson, stationed at Charleston, S.C., was married June 15. His bride is a Wave who is also stationed at the Charleston Navy Yard. Congratulations are in order.

Captain John Catrall is still "somewhere in the Aleutians." He was back on leave a short while ago, his first since he went north.

Lt. Com. C. H. Darby, Navy, who has been in charge of design and construction for 26 months at Mare Island, is now taking refresher course at Camp Parks.

1st Lt. J. C. Carleton, Engineer Air Corps, has been stationed in England,

(Continued on page 29)

WOODBURN—Formerly a corporal in the WAC, Vivian B. Fryer received a promotion June 1, and is now a sergeant. Since mid-March, when she was transferred from Ft. Belvoir at Ft. Myer, Virginia, she has been assigned to special work in the Pentagon building in Washington, D.C. For the previous nine months she served as stenographer with the department of mechanical and technical instruction in the engineering school at Belvoir.

Prior to her enlistment, Sgt. Fryer spent six years at typing and filing in the office of the highway department in Salem. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Fryer. Four of her brothers are also in service, three in the navy and one in the army.

Leighton's Auto Part & Machine Works

Wholesale and Retail

Phone 737 La Grande, Ore.

Kimball Brothers Lumber Co.

Douglas Fir and Red Cedar Lumber

TRENT

OREGON