

Introducing Our
EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

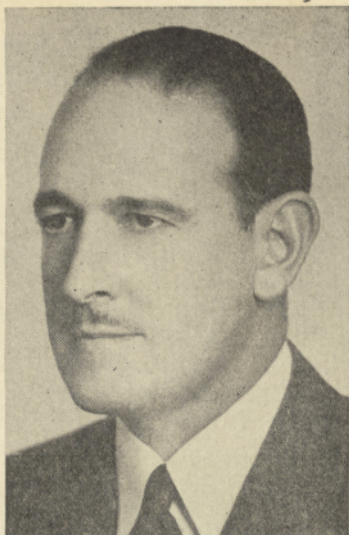

Forrest V. Stewart

Forrest V. Stewart was born in Leadore, Idaho in 1903. His parents were descendants of the earliest pioneers of the Territory of Idaho.

He attended grade school and high school in Leadore and after graduating went to Albion, Idaho, where he attended Albion Normal School. Later he attended the Normal School at Bellingham, Washington, and then the University of Idaho, where he studied Civil Government and History.

In 1925 he started teaching school at Emmett, Idaho, and after four years was promoted to School Principal, which position he held until 1938. In 1938 he accepted a position as Field Representative with the Red Cross and was later promoted to the position of Red Cross Disaster Representative for Oregon, Washington and Idaho. His work with the Red Cross included contacting the various state, county and city officials, Army and Navy personnel, public and private agencies and lay people, developing and promoting Red Cross programs and interpreting Red Cross policy and procedure.

He is a member of the Order of Elks. Since boyhood he has been an ardent hunter and fisherman. The excellent hunting and fishing in Oregon are very attractive to him.

He resides at 605 South Summer Street, Salem, Oregon.

Mr. Stewart's education and experience and his pleasing personality qualify him as the ideal Executive Secretary for the Oregon State Employees' Association.

Mr. Stewart will have his office in Room 141, New Bligh Building, Salem, Oregon.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By A. J. FORD

I have found in talking to prospective members that they are very receptive to our aims and objects but have never had them explained before. I think that this is true of the employees in most departments, and when our aims and objects are explained and made clear we will receive their support.

One question most frequently asked is: "Are you affiliated with any Union?" It is always explained that our Association is non-union and non-political. We intend to at all times cooperate with the department heads to the end that there will be no discord.

Mr. Forrest V. Stewart, our Executive Secretary recently employed by the Board of Directors, will help new groups organize and form new chapters. New groups of twenty or more should be encouraged to form new chapters rather than affiliate with an existing chapter. The chapters are the

(Continued on page 2)